REGULATIONS

1. Title and commencement—(1) These regulations may be cited as the Accident Compensation (Referred Treatments Costs) Regulations 1990, Amendment No. 4, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Accident Compensation (Referred Treatments Costs) Regulations 1990* (hereinafter referred to as the principal regulations).

(2) These regulations shall come into force on the 1st day of July 1993.

2. Interpretation—(1) Regulation 2 (1) of the principal regulations is hereby amended by revoking the definitions of the terms “hospital”, “private hospital”, “public hospital”, “Social Security benefit”, and “State services”.

(2) Regulation 2 (1) of the principal regulations is hereby amended by revoking the definition of the term “registered specialist”, and substituting the following definition:

“Registered specialist” means any registered medical practitioner—

“(a) Registered as a specialist with the Medical Council of New Zealand; or

“(b) Recognised as a specialist by the Minister of Health immediately before the 14th day of November 1973 and still working as a specialist immediately before the 1st day of July 1993; or

“(c) Recognised by the relevant regional health authority as a specialist for the purposes of arrangements made in respect of pharmaceuticals under section 51 of the Health and Disability Services Act 1993 and eligible to receive remuneration as a specialist from a Crown health enterprise—but does not include any specialist working outside his or her specialty.”.

(3) Regulation 2 (2) of the principal regulations is hereby revoked.

3. Corporation to pay certain costs—(1) Regulation 4 (3) of the principal regulations is hereby amended by omitting the words “(less any Social Security benefit)” in both places where they occur.

(2) Regulation 4 (7) of the principal regulations is hereby amended by omitting the words “and neither the general practitioner nor the registered specialist is acting in the course of employment by an area health board”, and substituting the words “and neither the general practitioner nor the registered specialist is, in making that referral, providing a treatment or service in respect of which the Corporation is prohibited from making a payment by section 27B of the Act”.

4. Revocation—Regulation 5 (6) of the principal regulations (as inserted by regulation 2 of the Accident Compensation (Referred Treatments Costs) Regulation 1990, Amendment No. 1) is hereby revoked.

5. Prohibition of contributions to cost of treatment, etc., provided by Crown health enterprises—The principal regulations are hereby amended by inserting, after regulation 5, the following regulation:

“5A. Notwithstanding anything in these regulations, the Corporation shall not contribute to the costs of any treatment where that treatment is—

“(a) Provided or obliged to be provided by any Crown health enterprise; or

“(b) Provided or obliged to be provided by any treatment provider who is under a contract of service or contract for services with a Crown health enterprise where—

*S.R. 1990/242

Amendment No. 1: S.R. 1990/343

Amendment No. 2: S.R. 1990/353

Amendment No. 3: S.R. 1991/288

“(i) That contract relates to the provision of treatment which the Crown health enterprise is obliged to provide under a purchase agreement; and

“(ii) The treatment provider is providing or obliged to provide the treatment pursuant to that contract with that Crown health enterprise.”

6. Revocations—Regulations 6, 7, 8, 10 (2), and 11 of the principal regulations are hereby revoked.

7. Schedule—The Schedule to the principal regulations is hereby amended by omitting the words “(less any Social Security benefit)” in both places where it occurs.

8. Savings—Notwithstanding these regulations, where a treatment provider has provided, at any time before the close of the 30th day of June 1993, treatment to a claimant in respect of personal injury, the principal regulations shall continue to apply as if these regulations had not been made.

DIANE WILDERSPIN,
Acting for Clerk of the Executive Council.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on 1 July 1993, omit from the Accident Compensation (Referred Treatments Costs) Regulations 1990 references to terms repealed by the Health Reforms (Transitional Provisions) Act 1993. Regulations affected or superseded by the sections enacted in 1993 as sections 27, 27B, and 27C of the Accident Rehabilitation and Compensation Insurance Act 1992 are amended or revoked.

The new regulation 5A prohibits payments being made to Crown health enterprises pursuant to the principal regulations.

The amendments made by these regulations do not affect payment for treatment provided before 1 July 1993.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.
Date of notification in Gazette: 30 June 1993.

These regulations are administered in the Accident Rehabilitation and Compensation Insurance Corporation.
