THE ARMS REGULATIONS 1959 (REPRINT)

COBHAM, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington this 21st day of January 1959

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to the Arms Act 1958, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes the following regulations.

REGULATIONS

1. (1) These regulations may be cited as the Arms Regulations 1959.
- (2) These regulations shall come into force on the 1st day of February 1959.

Interpretation

2. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires,—
 - [“Antique firearm” means any firearm which is held in the possession of any person solely as an antique (but not as a copy or replica of an antique) and which is not designed for and is not capable of firing ammunition currently being manufactured:.]
 - “Arms Office” means any police station appointed as such pursuant to these regulations:
 - “Commissioner” means the Commissioner of Police:
 - “The Act” means the Arms Act 1958:

A reference to a numbered form is a reference to the form so numbered in the First Schedule to these regulations.

“Antique firearm”: The definition of this term was inserted by regulation 2 of S.R. 1964/32.

Licensed Dealers

3. (1) Every application for a dealer’s licence shall be in writing signed by the applicant. It shall state the full name, address, and occupation of the applicant, the address of the place at which the business is to be carried on, and whether the licence is sought in respect of firearms or ammunition or both. If the applicant intends to manufacture firearms, the application shall specify the class or classes of firearms intended to be manufactured.

(2) Where the applicant desires to carry on business at more than one address he shall apply for a separate licence in respect of each address.

[(3) Nothing in section 3 or section 4 of the Act shall apply to any antique firearm.]

Subclause (3) was substituted for the former subclause (3) (as added by regulation 2 of S.R. 1962/109) by regulation 3 of S.R. 1964/32.

4. An application for a dealer’s licence shall be delivered to the Arms Office nearest the place of business named in the application.

5. A dealer’s licence shall be in form 1.

6. Every dealer’s licence, whether issued before or after the commencement of these regulations, shall expire on the 31st day of March next after the date on which it comes or has come into operation:

Provided that at any time before the date of expiry of a licence or within 3 months after that date, a commissioned officer of Police may, if he thinks fit, issue a new licence in renewal thereof, upon payment of the fee therefor and without any application.

7. (1) The records to be kept by a licensed dealer shall be as follows:

(a) In respect of every firearm received (including a shotgun)—

(i) The particulars of any firearm received or manufactured;

(ii) The date of receipt of the firearm;

(iii) The name and address of the person from whom the firearm is received; and

(iv) In the case of any firearm received other than from another licensed dealer, the date and place of the issue of the import permit or certificate of registration:

(b) In respect of every firearm delivered (including a shotgun and, in the case of delivery to a person under the age of [20 years], any gun, rifle, or pistol whether acting by the force of explosives or not)—

(i) The particulars of the firearm;

(ii) The date of delivery;

(iii) The name and address of the person to whom it is delivered; and

(iv) In the case of a firearm delivered to a person who requires a permit to procure it, the date and place of issue of the permit:

- (c) In respect of the delivery of any ammunition, other than ammunition ordinarily used for shotguns or rifles that are ordinarily used in New Zealand for sporting purposes—
- (i) The kind and quantity of the ammunition;
 - (ii) The date of delivery;
 - (iii) The name and address of the person to whom the ammunition is delivered; and
 - (iv) In the case of ammunition delivered to a person who requires a permit to procure it, the date and place of issue of the permit.
- (2) The records shall be entered in a book kept for that purpose at the place of business to which the dealer's licence relates.
- (3) The records shall be kept so as to disclose readily the information required to be kept, and each entry shall be made at or immediately following the time of the transaction to which it relates.
- (4) Every book in which records are entered shall be retained for a period of 2 years after the date of the last entry therein.

In subclause (1) (b) "20 years" was substituted for "21 years" by s. 7 (1) of the Age of Majority Act 1970.

8. Where a licensed dealer procures possession of a firearm from any person, other than pursuant to an import permit or from a licensed dealer, the licensed dealer who procures possession shall forthwith notify the nearest Arms Office of the particulars of the firearm [and of its registration], the name and address of the person from whom it was received, the date of receipt, and the nature of the transaction:

Provided that this regulation shall not apply to shotguns or to the receipt of a firearm solely for the purpose of repairing it.

The words in square brackets were inserted by regulation 3 of S.R. 1962/109.

Importation of Firearms

9. (1) Every application for an import permit shall be in writing, signed by the applicant, and shall state—

- (a) The full name, occupation, and address of the applicant;
- (b) The quantity, description, and country of origin of the firearms to be imported;
- (c) The name of the manufacturer of the firearm;
- (d) The purpose for which the firearms are required;
- (e) The place at which the firearms are to be landed in New Zealand; and
- (f) In the case of a firearm imported for sale, the cost of the firearm to the importer.

(2) This subclause was added by regulation 4 of S.R. 1962/109 and revoked by regulation 4 of S.R. 1964/32.

[(3) Nothing in section 6 of the Act shall apply to a shotgun of a type ordinarily used in New Zealand and having a barrel exceeding 20 in. in length and brought into New Zealand by a tourist for his own personal use.

(4) Nothing in section 6 of the Act shall apply to a sporting rifle having a barrel exceeding 20 in. in length and brought into New Zealand by a tourist for his own personal use in any case where the owner has been issued with a certificate of registration in respect of the rifle.]

Subclauses (3) and (4) were added by regulation 2 of S.R. 1968/12.

10. The application shall be delivered to the Arms Office nearest to the place of business or the place of residence of the applicant or the place at which the firearms are to be landed.

[11. Import permits—(1) Every permit under section 6 of the Act shall be in form 2.

(2) No commissioned officer of Police shall issue any such permit unless he is satisfied that the applicant is a fit and proper person to be permitted to import the firearm.

[11A. Importation of starting pistols—Section 6 of the Act shall apply to starting pistols.]

Regulations 11 and 11A were substituted for the original regulation 11 by regulation 2 of S.R. 1970/13.

Permit to Procure Firearms or Ammunition

12. (1) An applicant for a permit to procure possession of a firearm or ammunition shall supply to the Arms Office any particulars relevant to the application required by that office to be given.

(2) Nothing in section 7 or section 8 of the Act shall apply to the delivery of any firearm if possession of it is retained only while it is being used under proper supervision on a properly constructed firing range.

(3) Nothing in section 7 or section 8 of the Act shall apply in respect of the delivery to a member of a rifle club affiliated to the National Rifle Association or the New Zealand Small Bore Rifle Association, of a rifle registered by any such club and used only for the purposes of the club.

[[(4) Nothing in section 7 of the Act shall apply to any antique firearm.]]

(5) Nothing in section 7 or section 8 of the Act shall apply in respect of the delivery of a firearm to a member of a pistol club which is for the time being approved by a commissioned officer of the Police for the purposes of this regulation, if the firearm is a pistol registered by that club and is used only for the purposes of the club on a properly constructed target range.

(6) For the purposes of this regulation the term "pistol" means any .22-calibre single shot pistol of the kind commonly used by pistol clubs [[; and includes any other type of pistol used for the purposes of a pistol club if the use of that type of pistol by that club is for the time being approved in writing by the Commissioner]] .]

[(7) Nothing in section 7 or section 8 of the Act shall apply to firearms of the kind known as humane killers or of the kind known as bolt guns or stud guns.

- (8) Nothing in section 7 of the Act shall apply to—
 (a) Revoked by regulation 2 of S.R. 1968/172.
 (b) Ammunition other than pistol ammunition.]

Subclauses (4)–(6) (subclause (4) having since been substituted for the former subclause (4) by regulation 5 of S.R. 1964/32) were substituted for the former subclause (4) (as added by regulation 2 of S.R. 1960/32) by regulation 5 of S.R. 1962/109.

In subclause (6) the words in double square brackets were added by regulation 3 of S.R. 1970/13.

Subclauses (7) and (8) were added by regulation 2 of S.R. 1966/181.

13. [Subject to subclause (2) of regulation 13A of these regulations], the application may be made to any Arms Office.

The words in square brackets were inserted by regulation 4 (2) of S.R. 1970/13.

[13A. Permits to procure pistols—(1) Every application for a permit to procure possession of a pistol shall be in writing signed by the applicant, and shall state—

- (a) The full name, address, and occupation of the applicant;
 (b) A description of the pistol;
 (c) The location of the pistol and the full name of its owner;
 (d) The reason the person wishes to obtain possession of the pistol.

(2) Every such application shall be delivered to the Arms Office nearest to the address of the applicant.]

This regulation was inserted by regulation 4 (1) of S.R. 1970/13.

14. (1) Every such permit shall be in form 3 [(except a permit to procure a shotgun issued to a person of or over the age of [[20 years]] which shall be in form 3A)] and, subject to any instructions of the Commissioner, may be issued by any member of the Police.

[(2) No member of the Police shall issue any such permit unless he is satisfied—

- (a) That the applicant is a fit and proper person to be in possession of the firearm; and
 (b) In the case of an application made after the 31st day of August 1969, that the applicant is able to handle the firearm safely:

Provided that this paragraph shall not apply if the applicant does not propose to use the firearm.]

[(3) Nothing in subsection (5) of section 7 of the Act shall apply to any permit issued under that section in respect of a shotgun to a person of or over the age of [[20 years]], but any such permit may be revoked at any time by a commissioned officer of Police.]

In subclause (1) the words in single square brackets were inserted by regulation 5 (1) of S.R. 1970/13, and "20 years" was substituted for "21 years" by s. 7 (1) of the Age of Majority Act 1970.

Subclause (2) was added by regulation 3 of S.R. 1968/172.

Subclause (3) was added by regulation 5 (2) of S.R. 1970/13, and "20 years" was substituted for "21 years" by s. 7 (1) of the Age of Majority Act 1970.

[15. Delivery of permit—(1) Every person of or over the age of [[20 years]] who pursuant to any such permit obtains possession of a firearm (other than a shotgun) shall deliver the permit to the person handing over possession of the firearm who shall forthwith write on the back of the permit a description of the firearm, the date of delivery, and his signature. He shall then return the permit to the person obtaining possession of the firearm who shall forthwith return the permit to the Arms Office nearest to his abode.

(2) Every person who pursuant to any such permit obtains possession of a shotgun shall retain the permit as long as he has possession of a shotgun.

(3) Every person who has attained the age of 16 years but has not attained the age of [[20 years]] and who, pursuant to any such permit, obtains possession of a firearm to which section 8 of the Act applies (including a shotgun, an antique firearm, or an air gun) shall deliver the permit to the person handing over possession of the firearm who shall forthwith write on the back of the permit a description of the firearm, the date of delivery, and his signature. He shall then return the permit to the person obtaining possession of the firearm who shall—

- (a) Unless the firearm is a shotgun, an antique firearm, an air gun, or other class of firearm which does not require to be registered under section 9 of the Act, forthwith return the permit to the Arms Office nearest to his abode; or
- (b) If the firearm is a shotgun, an antique firearm, an airgun, or other class of firearm which is not required to be registered under section 9 of the Act, retain the permit as long as he has possession of the firearm:

Provided that, except where the firearm is a shotgun, he shall not be required to retain possession of the permit after he has attained the age of [[20 years]].

This regulation was substituted for the original regulation 15 by regulation 6 (1) of S.R. 1970/13, and "20 years" in three places was substituted for "21 years" by s. 7 (1) of the Age of Majority Act 1970.

Registration of Firearms

16. (1) An applicant for a certificate of registration of a firearm shall supply to the Arms Office any particulars relevant to the application required by that office to be given.

[(2) Nothing in section 9 of the Act shall apply to:

- (a) Any antique firearm; or
- (b) [[Any shotgun (not being a pistol)]] of a kind ordinarily used in New Zealand for sporting purposes; or
- (c) Firearms of the kind known as humane killers; or
- (d) Firearms of the kind known as bolt guns or stud guns.]

Subclause (2) was substituted for the former subclause (2) (as substituted by regulation 6 of S.R. 1964/32, and as previously substituted by regulation 6 of S.R. 1962/109, and as added by regulation 3 of S.R. 1960/33) by regulation 3 (1) of S.R. 1966/181.

In subclause (2) (b) the words in double square brackets were substituted for the word "shotguns" by regulation 4 of S.R. 1968/172.

17. The application shall be made to the Arms Office nearest to the address of the applicant.

[17A. Registration of pistols—(1) Every application for a certificate of registration which is made in respect of a pistol by a person who is in possession of the pistol otherwise than pursuant to a permit under section 7 of the Act shall be in writing signed by the applicant, and shall state—

- (a) The full name, address, and occupation of the applicant;
- (b) A description of the pistol;
- (c) How, when, where, and from whom the pistol was acquired;
- (d) The reason why the applicant wishes to retain possession of the pistol.

(2) The pistol shall be delivered to the Arms Office with the application and shall be held by the Police pending a decision on the application.]

This regulation was inserted by regulation 7 of S.R. 1970/13.

18. A certificate of registration shall be in form 4 and, subject to any instructions of the Commissioner, may be issued by any member of the Police.

19. Every owner of a registered firearm who changes his address shall within 30 days after doing so give notice in writing thereof to the Arms Office nearest to his new address and with the notice shall forward the certificate of registration of the firearm.

20. Every owner of a registered firearm who intends to remove the firearm out of New Zealand shall give not less than 4 days' notice of the removal to the Arms Office nearest to his address, and shall deliver to that office any certificate of registration, licence to retain possession, or licence to carry, in respect of the firearm.

21. Whenever a firearm is lost, stolen, or destroyed, the owner shall forthwith give notice in writing thereof to the Arms Office nearest to his address, and shall give to the Arms Office all information in his possession relating to the loss, theft, or destruction, and shall deliver to the Arms Office any certificate of registration, licence to retain possession, or licence to carry, issued in respect of the firearm.

Unlawful Weapons

22. The weapons specified in the Second Schedule hereto are hereby declared to be unlawful weapons.

[22A. Nothing in section 12 of the Act shall apply to any antique firearm.]

This regulation was substituted for the former regulation 22A (as substituted by regulation 7 of S.R. 1962/109, and as previously inserted by regulation 4 of S.R. 1960/33) by regulation 7 of S.R. 1964/32.

23. Every application for a licence to retain possession of an unlawful weapon shall be in writing signed by the applicant, and shall state—

- (a) The full name, address, and occupation of the applicant;
- (b) A description of the weapon;

- (c) How, when, and where the weapon was acquired; and
- (d) The reason the applicant wishes to retain possession of the unlawful weapon.

24. (1) The application shall be delivered to the Arms Office nearest to the address of the applicant.

(2) The weapon shall be delivered to the Arms Office with the application and shall be held by the Police pending the decision of the [Commissioner].

In subclause (2) the word "Commissioner" was substituted for the word "Minister" by regulation 8 of S.R. 1970/13.

25. The personal representative of a deceased licensee or any other person to whom possession of an unlawful weapon of a deceased licensee comes, shall forthwith deliver the weapon together with the licence, to the nearest police station.

Carriage of Pistols

26. (1) An application for a licence to carry a pistol shall be in writing, signed by the applicant, and shall state—

- (a) The full name, address, and occupation of the applicant;
- (b) A description of the pistol;
- (c) The address of the place where the pistol is to be kept; and
- (d) The reason the pistol is desired to be carried.

(2) The application shall be accompanied by the certificate of registration of the pistol if the pistol is already registered.

27. The application shall be delivered to the Arms Office nearest to the place where the pistol is to be kept.

28. (1) If a commissioned officer of Police is satisfied that the applicant is a fit and proper person to hold a licence and that the grounds of the application justify the issue of a licence, he may, if he thinks fit, grant a licence in form 5:

Provided that the officer may, if he thinks fit, grant the licence in respect of the applicant and any employee of the applicant whose name is entered on the licence, or, if he thinks fit, in respect of the applicant and any employee of the applicant who is from time to time authorised in writing by the applicant to carry the pistol.

(2) Where any such licence has been granted, any commissioned officer may enter thereon the name of any employee of the holder of the licence, and thereupon the licence shall be deemed to be granted to the applicant and to any such employee.

(3) Any employee who is authorised pursuant to a licence to carry a pistol may get possession of the pistol for that purpose without a permit under section 7 of the Act.

(4) A licence to carry a pistol may be issued subject to such conditions as the officer of Police granting the licence thinks fit to impose.

29. Every licence to carry a pistol, whether issued before or after the commencement of these regulations, shall expire on the 31st day of March next following the issue thereof:

Provided that at any time before the date of the expiry of a licence or within 3 months after that date a commissioned officer of Police may, if he thinks fit, issue a new licence in renewal thereof upon payment of the appropriate fee and without any application.

30. The holder of a licence to carry a pistol shall within 48 hours after he changes his registered address give notice in writing of the change and of his new address to the Arms Office nearest to his new address.

31. On any change of the address at which the pistol is kept the holder of the licence shall within 48 hours after he changes that address deliver notice thereof in writing to the Arms Office nearest to the place named in the licence as the place at which the pistol is kept.

Fees

32. (1) The fees set out in the Third Schedule hereto shall be payable in respect of the documents mentioned therein.

(2) No document in respect of which a fee is payable shall be issued until the fee is paid.

(3) All amounts received as fees shall be paid into the Public Account and form part of [the Consolidated Revenue Account].

(4) Where before the 1st day of June 1959 a dealer's licence or a licence to carry a pistol is issued or renewed in respect of the year ending on the 31st day of March 1960, and in respect of a person who holds the licence at the date of the commencement of these regulations, the fee payable in respect of that issue or renewal shall be reduced by an amount proportionate to the number of any additional months for which the licence would have enured but for the coming into operation of these regulations.

In subclause (3) the reference to the Consolidated Revenue Account was substituted for a reference to the Consolidated Fund by s. 4 (4) of the Public Revenues Amendment Act 1963.

General

33. The Commissioner may appoint any police station to be an Arms Office for the purposes of these regulations.

34. (1) The Secretary for Justice may authorise any prison officer to possess and carry firearms belonging to the Crown.

(2) The Air Board may authorise any member of the Air Training Corps to possess and carry firearms belonging to the Crown.

(3) [The Director-General of Forests] may authorise any employee of the Forestry Department to possess and carry firearms belonging to the Crown.

(4) The Secretary for Internal Affairs may authorise any employee of the Department of Internal Affairs to possess and carry firearms belonging to the Crown.

(5) [The Secretary of Defence or Secretary for Transport] may authorise any employee of the [Ministry of Defence or Ministry of Transport] to possess and carry firearms used in the operation and control of air traffic.

In subclause (2), as to the Air Board, see s. 26 (4) of the Defence Act 1964.

In subclause (3) the reference to the Director-General of Forests was substituted for a reference to the Director of Forestry by s. 2 (4) of the Forests Amendment Act 1960, and the Forestry Department is now the New Zealand Forest Service; see s. 5 of the Forests Act 1949.

In subclause (5) the reference to the Secretary for Defence or Secretary for Transport was substituted for a reference to the Air Secretary by s. 26 (6) of the Defence Act 1964, and s. 32 (2) of the Civil Aviation Act 1964 (as amended by s. 16 (1) of the Ministry of Transport Act 1968); and the reference to the Ministry of Defence or Ministry of Transport was substituted for a reference to the Air Department by s. 26 (5) of the Defence Act 1964, and s. 32 (2) of the Civil Aviation Act 1964 (as amended by s. 16 (1) of the Ministry of Transport Act 1968).

35. Every person to whom any licence, permit, or certificate has been issued shall retain the same; and shall produce the same for inspection, together with any firearm to which it refers, whenever required to do so by any member of the Police.

36. Where any licence, permit, or certificate has been lost or destroyed a copy may be issued in replacement thereof on payment of a fee of [\$1].

The sum of $1 was substituted for 10 shillings by s. 7 of the Decimal Currency Act 1964.

37. (1) Any person who makes a false statement touching any particular required to be known pursuant to these regulations, commits an offence against these regulations.

(2) Any person who fails to comply in any respect with any of the provisions of these regulations commits an offence against these regulations.

(3) Any person who commits an offence against these regulations shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [\$40].

In subclause (3) the sum of $40 was substituted for £20 by s. 7 of the Decimal Currency Act 1964.

38. (1) The enactments specified in the Fourth Schedule to these regulations are hereby revoked.

(2) Without limiting the provisions of the Acts Interpretation Act 1924, it is hereby declared that the revocation of any provision by these regulations shall not affect any document made or any thing whatsoever done under the provision so revoked or under any corresponding former provision, and every such document or thing, so far as it is subsisting or in force at the time of the revocation and could have been made or done under these regulations, shall continue and have effect as if it had been made or done under the corresponding provision of these regulations and as if that provision had been in force when the document was made or the thing was done.
