(3) For the purposes of these regulations delivery on a railway siding used for the purposes of an abattoir or meat-export slaughterhouse shall be deemed to be delivery at the abattoir or meat-export slaughterhouse.

(4) Whenever any calves to which this Order applies have been delivered in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this clause the owner shall be deemed to have agreed with the Department that they shall thereafter be subject to the provisions of these regulations.

5. (1) All calves delivered to any abattoir or meat-export slaughterhouse pursuant to these regulations shall be inspected by an Inspector in accordance with the provisions of section 47 (1) of the Meat Act, 1939.

(2) If on inspection under the said section the Inspector determines with respect to any calf that it is not suitable for slaughter for human consumption, these regulations shall have no further application to it, and its disposal shall be a matter of arrangement between the Committee or owner, as the case may be, and the controlling authority or licensee of the abattoir or meat-export slaughterhouse.

6. With respect to all calves approved by an Inspector as being suitable for slaughter for human consumption, the Department, by a general or special direction given by or on behalf of the Director of the Export Division of the Department, shall determine whether the meat derived therefrom shall be made available for human consumption in New Zealand or elsewhere, or shall be otherwise disposed of.

Provided that no payment shall be made under this subclause in respect of any calf if, on inspection pursuant to section 47 (2) of the Meat Act, 1939, the meat derived therefrom is condemned as being unfit for human consumption.

(2) On the slaughter of any calf for which payment is to be made in accordance with this clause the Department shall be deemed to have purchased the meat derived therefrom (exclusive of the offal), and may sell or otherwise dispose of such meat in such manner and on such terms as it thinks fit.

(3) The skin and the offal derived from any calf slaughtered as aforesaid shall not be deemed to have been purchased by the Department, and may be disposed of, on account of the owner, on terms to be mutually arranged between the Committee or the owner, as the case may be, and the controlling authority or licensee of the abattoir or meat-export slaughterhouse.

8. (1) For the purpose of facilitating the making of payments in respect of bobby calves slaughtered at any abattoir or meat-export slaughterhouse the Department shall fix periodical accounting periods. No accounting period shall exceed one month in duration.

(4) Subject to the foregoing provisions, payments due in respect of any period shall be made as soon as practicable after the end of that period.

9. Payments in accordance with the last preceding clause may, as the Department determines, be made to the controlling authority or licensee of the abattoir or meat-export slaughterhouse on behalf of the appropriate Committees or owners, or may be made to any such Committee as agent of the owners.

10. (1) Any profits that may be derived by the Department from the sale of meat under these regulations shall as soon as practicable after the 31st day of May, 1942, be distributed in accordance with this clause among the owners of bobby calves slaughtered in accordance with these regulations.

(2) For the purposes of this clause any profits as aforesaid shall be deemed to have been derived in equal proportions from all calves for which payment has been made in accordance with clause 7 hereof, irrespective of whether the meat derived from any particular calves was sold or not, and shall be distributed among the several owners accordingly in proportion to the number of calves supplied by them.

(3) The amount of the profits to which this clause relates shall be deemed to be the excess of the total amount received by the Department from the sale of meat in accordance with these regulations over the total amount of the cost of such meat and other charges incurred by the Department in respect thereof.

(4) The determination of the Minister as to the amount (if any) to be distributed in accordance with this clause, the persons entitled to participate in any distribution of profits, and the amount to which any such person is entitled shall be final and conclusive.
