EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

The effect of these regulations is that the rules in relation to programme standards for television will require to be made by the Broadcasting Rules Committee and endorsed by the Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand, and will no longer require the endorsement of the Independent Broadcasters Association Incorporated.

The regulations re-enact former provisions that the rules in relation to programme standards for radio broadcasting are to be made by the Committee and endorsed by the Corporation and the Association, and that section 26 (5) of the Broadcasting Act 1976 is to apply in the event of the Corporation and the Association being unable to agree.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette: 10 November 1977.

These regulations are administered in the Department of Justice.
