EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the order, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This order declares that certain companies in the Equiticorp group of companies shall cease to be subject to statutory management under the Corporations (Investigation and Management) Act 1989 on the close of 6 August 1993. The companies were made subject to receivership under the Companies Special Investigations Act 1958 by the Companies Special Investigations Order 1989. They were made subject to statutory management under the Corporations (Investigation and Management) Act 1989 by the Corporations (Investigation and Management) Order 1989.

The effect of the order is that, in accordance with section 62 (3) of the Corporations (Investigation and Management) Act 1989,—

- (a) Each of the companies named in the order ceases to be subject to statutory management on the close of that date; and
- (b) The appointment of the statutory managers terminates in respect of those companies on the close of that date; and
- (c) The appointment of the members of the advisory committee who hold office in relation to the companies in the Equiticorp group that are subject to statutory management terminates in relation to the companies named in the order on the close of that date.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.

Date of notification in Gazette: 8 July 1993.

This order is administered in the Department of Justice.
