THE COMPENSATION COURT REGULATIONS 1940,
AMENDMENT NO. 4

B. C. FREYBERG, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 16th day of June, 1948

Present :

THE RIGHT HON. W. NASH PRESIDING IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to section 70 of the Statutes Amendment Act, 1939, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby make the following regulations.

REGULATIONS

1. These regulations may be cited as the Compensation Court Regulations 1940, Amendment No. 4, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Compensation Court Regulations 1940* (hereinafter referred to as the principal regulations).

2. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the principal regulations, the Governor-General may from time to time appoint any Deputy Judge of the Court of Arbitration to be a Deputy Judge of the Compensation Court :

Provided that no additional salary shall be payable by reason of any such appointment.

3. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the principal regulations, if for any reason a Judge of the Compensation Court considers it necessary or desirable that a Deputy Judge of that Court should act as Judge of that Court for the hearing and determination of any particular matter or for any specified period, he may, with the consent of a Judge of the Court of Arbitration, request the Deputy Judge of the Compensation Court to act as a Judge of the Compensation Court.
