

THE CUSTOMS IMPORT PROHIBITION ORDER 1940, NO. 3.

GALWAY, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 5th day of November, 1940.

Present:

THE RIGHT HON. P. FRASER PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

PURSUANT to section 46 of the Customs Act, 1913, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, and being of the opinion that the prohibition hereinafter enacted is necessary in the public interest, doth hereby order as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Customs Import Prohibition Order 1940, No. 3.

2. This Order shall come into force on the day following notification in the Gazette of the making thereof.

3. In this Order, "wireless transmitting-apparatus" means—

- (i) Any wireless transmitter designed to be used or capable of being used for communicating by wireless telegraphy, wireless telephony, or wireless television, or for wireless facsimile transmission or for any other purpose of communication or for any other purpose, whether of the same kind as aforesaid or not;
- (ii) Electronic valves capable of an anode dissipation exceeding 10 watts;
- (iii) Piezo-electric quartz plates;
- (iv) Piezo-electric tourmaline plates cut to oscillate at a given frequency; and includes also
- (v) Any wireless receiving-apparatus designed to be used or capable by the operation of a switch or by the changing of screwed or plugged connections of being adapted for use as a wireless transmitter as herein-before defined.

4. The importation is prohibited, save with the consent of the Minister of Customs, of wireless transmitting-apparatus.

C. A. JEFFERY,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act, 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette: 7th day of November, 1940.

These regulations are administered in the Customs Department.
