

THE CITRUS MARKETING AUTHORITY REGULATIONS
1966, AMENDMENT NO. 3

KEITH HOLYOAKE, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington this 19th day of November 1979

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to the Primary Products Marketing Act 1953, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes the following regulations.

REGULATIONS

1. Title and commencement—(1) These regulations may be cited as the Citrus Marketing Authority Regulations 1966, Amendment No. 3, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Citrus Marketing Authority Regulations 1966* (hereinafter referred to as the principal regulations).

(2) These regulations shall come into force on the day after the date of their notification in the Gazette.

2. Functions and powers of Authority—(1) Regulation 11 (3) of the principal regulations is hereby amended by omitting from paragraph (b) the words “treatment, or packing”, and substituting the words “curing, treatment, packing, processing, distribution, or sale”.

(2) The said regulation 11 (3) is hereby further amended by adding the following paragraph:

“(d) Where, in the opinion of the Authority, such an activity may conveniently be carried out in association with the Authority’s general functions and powers in relation to citrus fruit and may be of benefit to the Authority, the grading, curing, treatment, storage, packing, processing, distribution, or sale of such horticultural products other than citrus fruit as the Minister may for the time being approve.”

*S.R. 1966/64

Amendment No. 1: S.R. 1968/216

Amendment No. 2: S.R. 1976/11

3. Case levy abolished—Regulation 19 of the principal regulations is hereby amended—

(a) By revoking subclause (1):

(b) By omitting from subclause (2) the words “Without limiting the provisions of subclause (1) of this regulation.”

4. Banking powers increased—Regulation 20 of the principal regulations is hereby amended by revoking subclause (1), and substituting the following subclause:

“(1) For the purposes of these regulations there shall be established within the Reserve Bank of New Zealand, or any trading bank as defined in the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1964, an account to be known as the Citrus Industry Account, and such imprest or other subsidiary accounts as the Authority may from time to time consider necessary or desirable.”

5. Unauthorised expenditure limit increased—Regulation 21 of the principal regulations (as amended by section 7 (1) of the Decimal Currency Act 1964) is hereby further amended by omitting the expression “$100”, and substituting the expression “$2,000”.

P. G. MILLEN,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations permit the Citrus Marketing Authority, in addition to its existing powers in respect of citrus fruit, to—

(a) Cure, process, distribute, or sell citrus fruit grown in New Zealand (other than lemons or oranges) on behalf of growers or others:

(b) Grade, cure, treat, store, pack, process, distribute, or sell other horticultural products with the consent of the Minister.

The case levy on lemons and oranges is abolished.

The Authority is empowered to operate bank accounts at the Reserve Bank or any trading bank. Previously it was restricted to the Reserve Bank and the Bank of New Zealand.

The authorisation for expenditure not otherwise authorised is increased from $100 to $2,000.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette: 22 November 1979.

These regulations are administered in the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries.
