

THE CLOSING OF SHOPS (LATE NIGHT) EMERGENCY
REGULATIONS 1942, AMENDMENT NO. 1

C. L. N. NEWALL, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 7th day of March, 1942.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

PURSUANT to the Emergency Regulations Act, 1939, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby make the following regulations.

REGULATIONS.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Closing of Shops (Late Night) Emergency Regulations 1942, Amendment No. 1, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Closing of Shops (Late Night) Emergency Regulations 1942* (hereinafter referred to as the principal regulations).

2. Clause 4 of the principal regulations is hereby amended by revoking subclause (2), and substituting the following new subclause :—

“(2) By the same or another like notice any local authority that has fixed the closing-time to be observed by any shop or shops on the late night may with the approval of the Minister, and if so directed by the Minister shall, authorize the occupiers of any such shops to keep the shops open and to employ assistants on any other day or days of the week during extended hours, but so that in any week the total of the extended hours so authorized shall not exceed the total length of time for which the shops could have been kept open or such assistants have been employed during that week if the closing-time on the late night had not been altered. The extended hours so authorized in respect of any day may be either before the ordinary opening-time or after the ordinary closing-time or partly before the ordinary opening-time and partly after the ordinary closing-time.”

W. O. HARVEY,
Acting Clerk of the Executive Council.
