REGULATIONS

PART I—PRELIMINARY

1. Title and commencement—(1) These regulations may be cited as the Crown Solicitors Regulations 1969.

(2) These regulations shall come into force on the day after the date of their notification in the Gazette.

2. Application of regulations—These regulations shall apply to all work done by Crown Solicitors on or after the 1st day of July 1969.

3. Interpretation—(1) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“Civil matter” includes any appeal from any Committee, Board, Authority, or other administrative tribunal:

“Crown Solicitor” means a solicitor holding a warrant of appointment as such from the Governor-General:

“Registrar” means a Registrar of the Supreme Court; and includes a Deputy Registrar.

(2) The Solicitor-General may from time to time delegate to any officer of the Crown Law Office all or any of the powers exercisable by him under these regulations.

(3) These regulations prescribe the fees to be paid to Crown Solicitors for conducting the legal business of the Crown, and regulate the terms and conditions of their employment. They do not relate to the legal business of the Public Trustee, the Maori Trustee, the Government Life Insurance Office, the State Advances Corporation, or the State Insurance Office, except where any such Department, Office, or Corporation is acting as agent for a Government Department.

PART II—EMPLOYMENT OF CROWN SOLICITORS

4. Obligation not to appear against Crown—No Crown Solicitor or any member or employee of his firm shall accept employment, other than from the Crown, in any matter in which the Crown is directly concerned or appear against the Crown:

Provided that the Solicitor-General may exempt a Crown Solicitor or Crown Solicitors from compliance with this regulation in a particular case or a class of cases generally.

5. Right to take matter or business out of hands of Crown Solicitor—The Crown may take any matter or business out of the hands of any Crown Solicitor, and may require that all deeds, instruments, and papers in his hands relating thereto shall be handed over to some other solicitor to be nominated by the Crown, or as the Crown shall direct.

6. No lien against Crown—No Crown Solicitor shall, as against the Crown in respect of any legal business he performs for the Crown, have any lien upon any document, deed, or instrument of title, or upon any papers whatsoever, being the property of the Crown, or any right to retain any fund or money in his hands belonging to the Crown in satisfaction of or by way of security for the payment of any claim for fees that he may have against the Crown.

PART III—GENERAL PROVISIONS AS TO FEES

7. Basis for claiming fees—Fees claimed by a Crown Solicitor from the Crown shall not be assessed on the ordinary solicitor and client basis, but shall be claimed in accordance with regulation 11 hereof without further charge for receiving instructions, attendances, correspondence, or reports.

8. Special cases—In any special case where he is satisfied that the fee payable under these regulations is inadequate or excessive having regard to exceptional circumstances, the Solicitor-General may authorise such fee as he considers fair and reasonable.

9. Right of Crown to require taxation—Nothing in these regulations shall preclude the Crown from submitting costs for taxation in the usual way.

10. Costs recovered by Crown Solicitor—Where a Crown Solicitor has recovered and received costs in any transaction or proceeding on behalf of the Crown, he shall pay the same into the Public Account and forthwith forward the bank receipt therefor to the Department from which he received his instructions.

PART IV—CERTIFICATION OF FEES

11. Certification of fees—(1) A Crown Solicitor having a claim against the Crown for costs under these regulations shall, on the completion of the matter or business to which the claim relates, set out full particulars thereof in a voucher to be prepared and signed by him; and, if the claim is in respect of proceedings in the Supreme Court, shall forward the voucher to the Registrar of the Registry in which the proceedings were had, and in any other case shall forward it to a Registrar.

(2) Subject to subclause (5) of this regulation, the Registrar shall certify that the fees claimed are payable in accordance with these regulations, if—

- (a) He is satisfied that the fees claimed are correct in accordance with any scale prescribed by these regulations:
- (b) The appropriate scale prescribed by these regulations requires the fee to be fixed by reference to a maximum, and the fee claimed does not exceed that maximum and is in his opinion fair and reasonable:
- (c) There being no appropriate scale prescribed by these regulations, the fee claimed is in his opinion fair and reasonable and does not exceed $8 per hour for the time actually involved:
- (d) In respect of appearances in the Supreme Court, he is also satisfied that the appearances of which particulars are given were duly made.

(3) If in the opinion of the Registrar the nature of the service actually performed in any case does not justify the payment of the full fees prescribed by these regulations, or the work occasioned in any transaction or proceeding is reduced by the fact that the transaction or proceeding is one of a number or series of transactions or proceedings that are similar or that arise out of the same set of circumstances, he shall approve such lesser fee as he considers fair and reasonable and shall so certify on the voucher.

(4) In respect of criminal cases in the Supreme Court or Court of Appeal, the Registrar shall forward the voucher so certified to the Crown Law Office for payment, and in all other cases he shall return the voucher so certified to the Crown Solicitor for submission to the appropriate Government Department whose Permanent Head or other authorised certifying officer, if satisfied that the services charged for have been duly performed, shall so certify and arrange payment.

(5) If the fee claimed exceeds the amount which in the opinion of the Registrar could properly be claimed under subclause (2) of this regulation, and is claimed by reason of special circumstances, or if the Registrar is in doubt as to whether the fee is a proper fee for him to certify, he shall refer the voucher with a memorandum setting forth his reasons to the Solicitor-General, to determine the amount payable pursuant to regulation 8 hereof.

PART V—BUSINESS AT A DISTANCE AND TRAVELLING EXPENSES

12. Employment of agents—Where it is necessary for a Crown Solicitor to transact Crown business at a distance from his usual place of business—

- (a) He shall employ an agent unless, from the nature of the case or for special reasons, it is necessary that the Crown Solicitor himself should transact the business:
- (b) Except for special reasons and with the approval of the Solicitor-General, or in pursuance of any existing departmental arrangement, he shall employ as agent in any town in which a Crown Solicitor has been appointed only that Crown Solicitor.

13. Fee for instructing agent—Where a Crown Solicitor employs an agent, a fee not exceeding $12 will be allowed for preparing instructions.

14. Travelling expenses—The following travelling expenses will be allowed to a Crown Solicitor required to travel on Crown business more than 3 miles from his usual place of business:

- (b) Car allowance at 10c a mile each way where a private car is used:
- (c) Subsistence expenses reasonably incurred by him during the period of his absence from his residence, subject to the production of a receipt for any item in excess of $1, plus a sum of 25c per day or part of a day:
- (d) The cost paid for hiring a rental car if that cost together with subsistence expenses under this regulation and the special allowance provided for in regulation 15 hereof does not exceed the total of the subsistence expenses and special allowance that would have been payable if public transport had been used.

15. Special allowance for travelling time—A special allowance at the rate of $6 for each hour occupied on any day in travelling on Crown business will be allowed to a Crown Solicitor in addition to the travelling expenses provided in regulation 14 hereof:
