EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the rules, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

The District Courts Fees Rules 1992, which come into force on 1 July 1992, presently provide that a hearing fee is payable for the hearing of every interlocutory application (other than an interlocutory application for summary judgment in respect of which an affidavit in answer has been filed).

These rules, which come into force on 1 July 1992, remove the exception and provide that the hearing fee of $230 per half day is payable in respect of the hearing of every interlocutory application.
