EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on 1 April 1996, prescribe a new scale of fees payable to the Dental Technicians Board.

The fee payable on application for registration as a dental technician or clinical dental technician has been restructured to distinguish between applicants relying on New Zealand qualifications, and those relying on overseas qualifications. The existing fee is $160 for both classes of applicant. New Zealand trained applicants will now pay a fee of $120, and overseas trained applicants will pay a fee of $200.

Other fees have been increased, except for the fee for a certificate of temporary registration (which has been reduced), and the fee for a provisional certificate (which has been abolished).

The fees prescribed are inclusive of goods and services tax.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.

Date of notification in Gazette: 22 February 1996.

These regulations are administered in the Ministry of Health.
