

THE DAIRY SUPPLY CONTROL ORDER 1942

PURSUANT to the Primary Industries Emergency Regulations 1939,* the Minister of Agriculture hereby makes the following Order.

ORDER.

1. This Order may be cited as the Dairy Supply Control Order 1942, and shall come into force on the 1st day of August, 1942.

2. (1) In this Order—

“Dairy” means a dairy within the meaning of the Dairy Industry Act, 1908:

“Season” means the period of twelve months commencing on the 1st day of August in any year.

(2) Terms defined in the Dairy-produce Regulations 1938† have, when used in these regulations, the meanings respectively assigned thereto in those regulations.

REVOCATION OF FORMER ORDER.

3. The Dairy Supply Control Order 1941‡, and all directions given under the Primary Industries Emergency Regulations 1939* in relation to or for the purposes of the said Order, are hereby revoked.

DIRECTIONS AS TO SUPPLY OF MILK AND CREAM TO CREAMERIES AND TO CHEESE-FACTORIES.

4. (1) This clause applies with respect to every dairy from which any milk or cream was at any time during the period commencing on the 1st day of August, 1939, and ending on the 31st day of July, 1942, supplied to a creamery for the manufacture of butter.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this Order, every person who for the time being is the occupier of a dairy with respect to which this clause applies shall, while this Order continues in force, supply all milk or cream disposed of from that dairy to the creamery to which any milk or cream produced in that dairy was supplied during the period referred to in the last preceding subclause. Where during the said period any milk or cream from any dairy was supplied to different creameries, all milk or cream disposed of from that dairy, while this Order continues in force, shall be supplied to such one of those creameries as is nearest to or is most convenient of access to the dairy.

5. (1) This clause applies with respect to every dairy (not being in any case a dairy with respect to which clause 4 hereof applies) from which any milk was at any time during the 1941-42 season supplied to a cheese-factory for the manufacture of cheese.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this Order, every person who is for the time being the occupier of a dairy with respect to which this clause applies shall, while this Order continues in force, either :—

- (a) Supply all milk or cream disposed of from that dairy to a creamery for the manufacture of butter ; or
- (b) Supply all milk disposed of from that dairy to the cheese-factory to which any milk produced in that dairy was supplied during the season referred to in the last preceding subclause. Where during the said season milk from that dairy was supplied to different cheese-factories, all milk disposed of from that dairy, while this Order continues in force, shall be supplied to such one of those factories as is nearest to or is most convenient of access to the dairy.

6. The foregoing provisions of this Order shall not apply in any case where :—

- (a) A specific direction to the contrary is given in writing by the Primary Industries Controller or by the Director or the Assistant Director of the Dairy Division of the Department of Agriculture ; or
- (b) The occupier of a dairy is prevented from complying with the provisions of this Order by reason of any direction given by the Oil Fuel Controller or by any Goods Transport Control Committee under the Transport Control Emergency Regulations 1942* or given under the Delivery Emergency Regulations 1942†.

Dated at Wellington, this 24th day of July, 1942.

J. G. BARCLAY,
Minister of Agriculture.
