ORDER

1. Title and commencement—(1) This order may be cited as the Education (1994 Special School Staffing) Order 1993.

(2) This order shall come into force on the 1st day of January 1994.

2. Interpretation—(1) In this order, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“The Act” means the Education Act 1989:

“Other regular teacher” means a regular teacher who is not a permanently appointed regular teacher:

“Regular teacher” means a teacher who is not a relieving teacher (within the meaning of section 91A (1) of the Act):

“Secretary” means the chief executive of the department of State that, with the authority of the Prime Minister, is for the time being responsible for the administration of Part VIIIA of the Act:

“Teacher” includes a principal, and any deputy or associate principal (however described).

(2) For the purposes of this order,—

(a) The employment of a teacher on the basis of employment for 10 half-days every full week is the employment of 1 teacher equivalent; and

(b) The employment of a teacher on the basis of employment for a specified number (fewer than 10) of half-days every full week is the employment of one tenth of that number of teacher equivalents; and

(c) The employment of a teacher on the basis of employment for a specified number of half-days every full fortnight is the employment of one twentieth of that number of teacher equivalents; and

(d) The employment of a teacher on the basis of employment for a specified number of teaching hours (or an average of that number of teaching hours) every full week is the employment of one twenty-fifth of that number of teacher equivalents.

3. Limitation on appointment and employment of permanently appointed regular teachers at special schools—(1) There shall not be employed at any school specified in the First Schedule to this order, at any time in 1994, permanently appointed regular teachers whose employment generates a number of teacher equivalents greater than the number specified in the second column of that schedule opposite the school's name.

(2) There shall not be employed at any school specified in the Second Schedule to this order, at any time in 1994, permanently appointed regular teachers whose employment generates a number of teacher equivalents greater than the number specified in the second column of that schedule opposite the school's name.

(3) There shall not be employed at any school specified in the Third Schedule to this order, at any time in 1994, permanently appointed regular teachers whose employment generates a number of teacher equivalents greater than the number specified in that schedule opposite the school's name.

4. Limitation on appointment and employment of other regular teachers at special schools—(1) There shall not be employed at any school specified in the First Schedule to this order, at any time in 1994, other regular teachers whose employment generates a number of teacher equivalents greater than the number of teacher equivalents by which—

(a) The number of teacher equivalents generated by the employment at the school at that time of permanently appointed regular teachers,— is less than—

(b) The number specified in the second column of that schedule opposite the school's name.

(2) There shall not be employed at any school specified in the Second Schedule to this order, at any time in 1994, other regular teachers whose employment generates a number of teacher equivalents greater than the number of teacher equivalents by which—

(a) The number of teacher equivalents generated by the employment at the school at that time of permanently appointed regular teachers,—
is less than—

(b) The number specified in the second column of that schedule opposite the school's name.

(3) There shall not be employed at any school specified in the Third Schedule to this order, at any time in 1994, other regular teachers whose employment generates a number of teacher equivalents greater than the number of teacher equivalents by which—

(a) The number of teacher equivalents generated by the employment at the school at that time of permanently appointed regular teachers,—
is less than—

(b) The number specified in that schedule opposite the school's name.

5. Limitation on appointment and employment of regular teachers in positions of responsibility at special schools—(1) There shall not be employed—

(a) At any school specified in the First Schedule to this order, at any time in 1994, a principal of a grade higher than that specified in the third column of that schedule opposite the school's name:

(b) At any school specified in the Second Schedule to this order, at any time in 1994, a principal of a grade higher than that specified in the third column of that schedule opposite the school's name.

(2) Where no grade at all is specified in the fourth column of the First Schedule to this order opposite a school's name no deputy principal shall be employed at the school at any time in 1994.

(3) Subject to subclause (2) of this clause, there shall not be employed—

(a) At any school specified in the First Schedule to this order, at any time in 1994, a deputy principal of a grade higher than that specified in the fourth column of that schedule opposite the school's name:

(b) At any school specified in the Second Schedule to this order, at any time in 1994, a deputy principal of a grade higher than that specified in the fourth column of that schedule opposite the school's name.

(4) Where no grade at all is specified in the fifth column of the First Schedule or the Second Schedule to this order opposite a school's name no assistant principal shall be employed at the school at any time in 1994.

(5) Subject to subclause (4) of this clause, there shall not be employed—

(a) At any school specified in the First Schedule to this order, at any time in 1994, an assistant principal of a grade higher than that specified in the fifth column of that schedule opposite the school's name:

(b) At any school specified in the Second Schedule to this order, at any time in 1994, an assistant principal of a grade higher than that specified in the fifth column of that schedule opposite the school's name.

(6) Where no number at all is specified in the sixth column of the First Schedule or the Second Schedule to this order opposite a school's name no senior teachers shall be employed at the school at any time in 1994.

(7) Subject to subclause (6) of this clause, there shall not be employed—

(a) At any school specified in the First Schedule to this order, at any time in 1994, more senior teachers than the number specified in the sixth column of that schedule opposite the school's name:

(b) At any school specified in the Second Schedule to this order, at any time in 1994, more senior teachers than the number specified in the sixth column of that schedule opposite the school's name.

(8) There shall not be employed—

(a) At any school specified in the First Schedule to this order, at any time in 1994, more teachers (including senior teachers but excluding teacher assistants) than the number specified in the seventh column of that schedule opposite the school's name:

(b) At any school specified in the Second Schedule to this order, at any time in 1994, more teachers (including senior teachers) than the number specified in the seventh column of that schedule opposite the school's name.

(9) There shall not be employed at any school specified in the Second Schedule to this order, at any time in 1994, more speech language therapists than the number specified in the eighth column of that schedule opposite the school's name.

6. Roll increases—The Secretary shall, in exempting the Board of a special school from a limitation prescribed by clause 3, clause 4, or clause 5 of this order, have regard to the extent (if any) to which the school's roll is greater than was expected when this order was made.

7. Special problems—The Secretary shall, in exempting the Board of a special school from a limitation prescribed by clause 3, clause 4, or clause 5 of this order, have regard to the extent (if any) to which there have arisen at the school special problems that were not contemplated when this order was made.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the order, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This order, which comes into force on 1 January 1994, prescribes limitations on the numbers, and kinds and descriptions, of regular (that is to say non-relieving) teachers to be employed at special schools in 1994, and criteria to which the Secretary of Education is to have regard in exempting Boards of special schools from those limitations.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.
Date of notification in Gazette: 22 December 1993.
This order is administered in the Ministry of Education.
