1. Regulation 2 provides that an applicant for appointment to a position in a Maori school may be given preference over other applicants if the husband or wife of the applicant, being a certificated teacher, is an applicant for or holds a position in the school and if the Director is of the opinion that it is desirable in the interests of the school that a man and his wife should be appointed.

2. Regulation 3 gives authority for classes in music, art, and other approved subjects to be conducted outside normal school hours with the approval of the Director, and specifies the salaries payable to teachers who conduct any such classes.

3. Regulation 4 prescribes the removal expenses which may be paid to a teacher who is entitled to "married" salary when the teacher takes up his first appointment.

4. Regulation 5 is consequential on the 15 per cent wage increase and relates to teachers whose salaries cannot be adjusted by the Government Service Tribunal because they are in excess of £1,080 a year. The regulation provides for them to receive an increase in salary at the rate of £141 15s. a year on and after 15 February 1951 in addition to the £18 5s. a year which became payable to them on and after 8 May 1950.

5. Regulations 6 to 11 provide that mixed schools and Maori schools of Grade IVc are to have an assistant master of Grade B instead of an assistant mistress of that grade.
