EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations amend regulation 81 (2) of the Education (Assessment, Classification, and Appointment) Regulations 1976, which gives certain secondary teachers and manual training instructors priority rights in relation to appointment to advertised positions. There are 2 amendments. The first makes clear that priority rights apply to permanent positions only. One category of preferred teacher or instructor comprises those returning from schools established under section 106A (1) (b) of the Education Act 1964 (such as the school established in connection with the New Zealand forces in Singapore). The second amendment extends the category to include teachers and instructors whose contracts will expire within 8 months.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.
Date of notification in Gazette: 27 October 1983.
These regulations are administered in the Department of Education.
