1. These regulations may be cited as the Efficiency Decoration Regulations 1966.

Purpose

2. The Efficiency Decoration and clasps are rewards to an officer for long and meritorious service of proved capacity in the Territorial Army of Great Britain or other auxiliary forces of the Commonwealth, and, in New Zealand, are conferred by the Governor-General only on officers of the New Zealand Army who have performed the requisite qualifying service under these regulations:

Provided that prior service in the auxiliary forces of any other part of the Commonwealth, duly certified, shall count towards the requisite qualifying service as hereinafter appearing.

Subsidiary Title

3. (1) A subsidiary title to denote the force in which the recipient was serving at the time when he qualified for the award is inscribed on the bar brooch of the decoration, those decorations awarded to officers of the New Zealand Army being so inscribed with the title "New Zealand".

(2) An officer on whom the decoration is conferred is entitled to the addition after his name of the letters "E.D."

Interpretation

4. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“Auxiliary forces of the Commonwealth” means the Royal New Zealand Naval Volunteer Reserve, the New Zealand Territorial Force, and the New Zealand Territorial Air Force; the Territorial Army, the Auxiliary Territorial Service, the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve, and the Royal Auxiliary Air Force in the United Kingdom, and other similar forces of any other part of the Commonwealth:

“Commonwealth” means the Commonwealth of Nations; and includes every territory for whose international relations the Government of any country of the Commonwealth is or has been responsible:
