First, counting of votes in elections is to take place—

- (a) In the case of boards of correspondence schools, boards of certain special institutions, and the parent representatives on the boards of other schools, on the 6th day after the election, rather than on the 9th day after the election as at present; and
- (b) In the case of student and staff representatives, before 6th day after the election, rather than before the 9th day after the election as at present.

Secondly, people whose names are on the roll are given a right to inspect nominations (in the hands of the returning officer) at any reasonable time.

Thirdly, the existing power to inspect the roll is modified so that inspection can take place only at reasonable times.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.
