THE EGG MARKETING EMERGENCY REGULATIONS 1942, AMENDMENT NO. 1

C. L. N. NEWALL, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 24th day of March, 1943.

Present :

THE HON. D. G. SULLIVAN PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

PURSUANT to the Emergency Regulations Act, 1939, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby make the following regulations.

REGULATIONS.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Egg Marketing Emergency Regulations 1942, Amendment No. 1, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Egg Marketing Emergency Regulations 1942* (hereinafter referred to as the principal regulations).

2. The powers conferred on the Minister by clause 4 of the principal regulations, with respect to the sale and purchase of eggs in special egg-marketing areas, are hereby extended so as to empower the Minister to give directions under that clause for regulating and controlling the sale and purchase of eggs in any other part of New Zealand, and to prohibit the sale of eggs in any case where the prohibition of such sale is, in his opinion, necessary for the proper regulation and control of the sale of eggs in any part of New Zealand.

3. The provisions of section 5 of the Marketing Amendment Act, 1937 (as to the delegation of powers by the Minister), shall apply with respect to all or any of the powers conferred on the Minister by the principal regulations (including these regulations).

4. (1) The Director or any other officer of the Internal Marketing Division may require any person having for the time being possession or control of any eggs intended for sale (whether such person is the owner of the eggs or not) to answer any inquiries relative to the source of production of such eggs or their ownership or their intended destination, and to carry out any instructions given by the officer for the purpose of giving effect to any directions given by or on account of the Minister for the purposes of the principal regulations or these regulations.

(2) Every person commits an offence against the principal regulations who refuses or fails to answer any inquiries put to him in accordance with this clause, or who gives any false or misleading information in relation thereto, or who refuses or fails to comply with any instructions given by any officer of the Department acting under the authority of this clause.

T. J. SHERRARD,
Acting Clerk of the Executive Council.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act, 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette: 25th day of March, 1943.

These regulations are administered in the Internal Marketing Division of the Marketing Department.
