THE EXPORT PROHIBITION EMERGENCY REGULATIONS 1939, AMENDMENT NO. 2

B. C. FREYBERG, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 6th day of February, 1951

Present :

THE HON. K. J. HOLYOAKE PRESIDING IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to the Emergency Regulations Continuance Act, 1947 His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby make the following regulations.

REGULATIONS

1. These regulations may be cited as the Export Prohibition Emergency Regulations 1939, Amendment No. 2, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Export Prohibition Emergency Regulations 1939* (hereinafter referred to as the principal regulations).

2. The principal regulations are hereby amended by inserting, after regulation 6B, the following regulation :—

“6c. (1) The Minister may from time to time, by writing under his hand, either generally or particularly, delegate to the Board of Trade established under the Board of Trade Act, 1950, all or any of his powers and functions under these regulations, but not including this present power of delegation, and not including any powers or functions relating to agricultural or pastoral products.

“(2) Subject to any general or special directions given or conditions attached by the Minister, the Board of Trade may exercise any powers or functions delegated to it under this regulation in the same manner and with the same effect as if they had been conferred on the Board directly by this regulation and not by delegation.

“(3) Where the Board purports to act pursuant to any delegation under this regulation it shall be presumed to be acting in accordance with the terms of the delegation in the absence of proof to the contrary.

“(4) Every delegation under this regulation shall be revocable at will, and no such delegation shall prevent the exercise of any power or function by the Minister or by any other person.

“(5) Any delegation under this regulation shall, until revoked, continue in force according to its tenor, notwithstanding that the Minister by whom it was made may have ceased to hold office, and shall continue to have effect as if made by the successor in office of that Minister.”

T. J. SHERRARD,

Clerk of the Executive Council.
