INFORMATION FOR ELECTORS

(This information is repeated on the back of the coloured card)

Registration compulsory

If you are qualified to register as an elector of an electorate, the law requires you to do so.

Qualifications

You are qualified to register if you—

- (a) Are a New Zealand citizen or a permanent resident of New Zealand; and
- (b) Are 18 years of age or over; and
- (c) Have at some period resided continuously in New Zealand for 1 year or longer; and
- (d) Are not disqualified under the Electoral Act 1956.

Your electorate will be the last in which you have resided continuously for 3 months or, if you have never resided continuously in any one electorate for 3 months, the one in which you now reside or have last resided.

Disqualifications

Disqualified under the Electoral Act 1956 are—
THOSE New Zealand citizens who (not being public servants on duty or members of their families) are outside New Zealand and have not been in New Zealand within the last 3 years/THOSE permanent residents of New Zealand who (not being New Zealand citizens or public servants on duty or members of their families) are outside New Zealand and have not been in New Zealand within the last 12 months/THOSE detained under the Criminal Justice Act 1954 as either special patients or committed patients in a hospital under the Mental Health Act 1969/THOSE detained as convicted persons in a penal institution or in a hospital under the Mental Health Act 1969/THOSE named on a Corrupt Practices List.

Truth

You must satisfy yourself that the statements in the application are true.

Signature

You must sign the application yourself unless you are physically disabled. If you are physically disabled the application may be signed on your behalf in accordance with section 48 (2) of the Electoral Act 1956.

Change of Address

Every time you change your address, you must give your new address to the Registrar of Electors. Change of address forms are kept at every Post Office.

NEW ZEALAND MAORI OPTION

- If you are a New Zealand Maori or a descendant of a New Zealand Maori, you may have the option of choosing between a General electorate or a Maori electorate. Everyone else must register for a General electorate.
- The option is available to you if—
 - (a) You have never registered as an elector before; or
 - (b) You were not registered as an elector on [Insert date] and you have not registered since.
- If you have since [Insert date], registered for any Maori electorate or any General electorate, you cannot, until [Insert year], change the type of electorate for which you chose to be registered.
