THE ECONOMIC STABILISATION (SLAUGHTERING AND PROCESSING CHARGES) REGULATIONS 1977

KEITH HOLYOAKE, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington this 21st day of November 1977

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to the Economic Stabilisation Act 1948, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes the following regulations.

REGULATIONS

1. Title—These regulations may be cited as the Economic Stabilisation (Slaughtering and Processing Charges) Regulations 1977.

2. Commencement and expiry—(1) These regulations shall come into force on the day after the date of their notification in the Gazette.

(2) These regulations shall continue in force for 12 months from their commencement, and shall then expire.

3. Interpretation—In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“Abattoir” has the same meaning as in section 2 of the Meat Act 1964:

“Export slaughterhouse” has the same meaning as in section 2 of the Meat Act 1964:

“Remuneration” has the same meaning as in regulation 2 of the Stabilisation of Prices Regulations 1974*.

4. Admissible costs limited—(1) Notwithstanding anything in regulation 10 of the Stabilisation of Prices Regulations 1974*, in calculating under regulation 13 of those regulations any increase in charges for the slaughtering of stock or for the processing of stock or for both in any export slaughterhouse or abattoir, the amount by which increases in remuneration exceed, on the average, 7.5 percent of the remuneration that would be lawfully payable to the persons employed in the export

Amendment No. 6: S.R. 1977/222

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations limit, for 12 months, the increases in remuneration which may be claimed as admissible costs, in calculating, under the Stabilisation of Prices Regulations 1974, increases in charges for the slaughtering of stock or for the processing of stock or for both in any export slaughterhouse or abattoir. Where the increase in remuneration is, on the average, more than $7\frac{1}{2}$ percent of the remuneration lawfully payable under the rates applicable at the commencement of these regulations, the excess will not be an admissible cost.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette: 21 November 1977.

These regulations are administered in the Department of Trade and Industry.
