1. These regulations may be cited as the Economic Stabilization Regulations 1953, Amendment No. 2, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Economic Stabilization Regulations 1953* (hereinafter referred to as the principal regulations).

2. In making a general order on the application now pending, the Court of Arbitration may, if it thinks fit, specify in the general order a date before the date of the order, but not earlier than the 15th day of September 1953, as the date of the commencement of the order.

(b) The date on and from which the general order shall be deemed to have been incorporated in every such award and industrial agreement as provided in subclause (5) of regulation 3 of the principal regulations shall be the date of commencement or the date of the coming into force of the award or industrial agreement, whichever date is the later:

* Statutory Regulations 1953, Serial number 1953/30, page 209.

Amendment No. 1: Statutory Regulations 1953, Serial number 1953/62, page 242.

- (c) The fact that any such award or industrial agreement that is amended by the general order has ceased to be in force before the date of the general order shall not affect the validity or enforcement of the amended provision in respect of any period before the award or industrial agreement ceased to be in force.

T. J. SHERRARD,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

[This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.]

These regulations relate to the application for a general order to increase wages that is now pending in the Court of Arbitration.

In view of the fact that the hearing of the application by the Court could not commence on 8 September 1953, the date for which it was set down, these regulations give the Court a discretionary power to fix a date for the commencement of its general order before the date on which it is made, but not earlier than 15 September 1953.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette: 17 September 1953.

These regulations are administered in the Department of Labour and Employment.
