

1962/93

THE FOREST AND RURAL FIRES REGULATIONS 1956, AMENDMENT NO. 2

COBHAM, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington this 20th day of June 1962

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to the Forest and Rural Fires Act 1955, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes the following regulations.

REGULATIONS

1. These regulations may be cited as the Forest and Rural Fires Regulations 1956, Amendment No. 2, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Forest and Rural Fires Regulations 1956* (hereinafter referred to as the principal regulations).

2. These regulations shall come into force on the 1st day of August 1962.

3. Regulation 3 of the principal regulations is hereby amended by inserting in subclause (2), after the definition of the term "district", the following definition:

“ ‘Exotic forest’ includes—

“(a) Any land that is for the time being owned or occupied by any owner or occupier of such a forest, being—

“(i) Land that is for the time being used exclusively or principally as a road or means of access in connection with the planting, growing, conservation, or milling of the forest; or

“(ii) Land that is for the time being used exclusively or principally as a firebreak in connection with the forest; or

“(iii) Land on which there remains sufficient forest slash or debris from the forest to constitute a fire hazard when the slash or debris is dry:

“(b) Any area on which young or immature exotic trees are being planted or growing, being an area that will become an exotic forest or part of an exotic forest when the trees mature:”.

Amendment No. 1: S.R. 1958/152

4. Regulation 27 of the principal regulations is hereby amended—
- (a) By inserting in subclause (3), after the word “permit”, the words “other than a permit in respect of an exotic forest to an employee or agent of an owner or occupier of that forest”:
 - (b) By omitting from subclause (4) the words “or to his employees or agents” in each place where they occur.

T. J. SHERRARD,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations amend the principal regulations by including a definition of the term “exotic forest”, and by making it clear that employees or agents of owners or occupiers of an exotic forest require the permission of the owners or occupiers before they can enter the forest.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette: 21 June 1962.

These regulations are administered in the New Zealand Forest Service.
