EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations permit the use of rock lobster pots used only to hold rock lobsters and increase certain fees payable in respect of fishing permits issued under the Fisheries Act 1986.

Regulation 2 effects the amendment relating to rock lobster pots and comes into force on 1 October 1992.

Regulation 3 effects the increases to fees and comes into force on 14 August 1992. The changes are as follows:

- (a) An administration fee of $10.13 is imposed for each authorisation to take a non-quota management system fishstock from a particular area on or after 14 August 1992. This fee does not apply to permits under Part IIA of the Act:
- (b) The initial fee for an application for a special permit under section 64 of the Act is increased from $150 to $900 but is reduced to $225 where the application is processed within 4 hours:
- (c) The fee for the amendment or alteration of a special permit under section 64 of the Act is increased from $15 to $56.25.

All the fees prescribed by these regulations are inclusive of goods and services tax under the Goods and Services Tax Act 1985.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.

Date of notification in Gazette: 30 July 1992.

These regulations are administered in the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries.
