EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations are made pursuant to section 66 of the Gaming and Lotteries Act 1977, and amend the Gaming and Lotteries (Licensed Promoters) Regulations 1978.

Regulation 1 relates to the Title and commencement.

Regulation 2 amends regulation 17 of the principal regulations. Subclause (1) of that regulation limits the amount that a promoter may claim by way of expenses to 15 percent of the gross proceeds of the sale of tickets. The new subclause empowers the client society to meet any additional expenses resulting from any unforeseen change of circumstances beyond the control of the licensee. However, the society cannot be compelled to make any such payment.

Regulation 3 revokes regulation 18 of the principal regulations, which prohibits licensees from conducting more than 20 prize competitions or lotteries in any licensing year.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette: 6 March 1980.

These regulations are administered in the Department of Internal Affairs.
