†S.R. 1952/119.

‡S.R. 1955/139.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

[This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.]

These regulations consolidate the Government Service Tribunal Regulations (No. 2) 1949 and their amendments.

Only two changes are made in the regulations as previously amended. Regulation 4 prescribes the maximum salary for the definition of the term "employee" in the Government Service Tribunal Act 1948 as the salary payable to officers in Subdivision 2 of Class Special of the Clerical Division of the Public Service. This salary is at present £1,220. Previously the maximum salary for defining the employees subject to the jurisdiction of the Government Service Tribunal was £1,110.

In regulation 5 (2) the term "Official Circular" is defined as meaning the New Zealand Education Gazette in relation to the Education service.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette: 21 December 1955.

These regulations are administered in the Public Service Commission.
