THE HOSPITAL EMPLOYMENT (MALE NURSES)
REGULATIONS 1952

FREYBERG, Governor-General
ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington, this 7th day of May 1952

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to the Hospitals Act 1926, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes the following regulations.

REGULATIONS

1. (1) These regulations may be cited as the Hospital Employment (Male Nurses) Regulations 1952, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Hospital Employment Regulations 1952* (hereinafter referred to as the principal regulations).

(2) For the purposes of regulation 4 of the principal regulations, these regulations shall be deemed to form a Part of the principal regulations.

Commencement

2. (1) Such of the provisions of these regulations as have the effect of increasing the rates of salaries, wages, and other emoluments and increments payable in respect of the classes of persons whose positions are specified in these regulations shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of July 1951.

(2) Except as provided in the last preceding subclause, these regulations shall come into force on the day after the date of their notification in the Gazette.

* Statutory Regulations 1952, Serial number 1952/86, page 352.

Interpretation

3. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(c) Any person who, having been employed as an orderly by a Board before 21 June 1951, is, whether before or after that date, accepted by that Board for training as a pupil male nurse shall, as from 1 July 1951, or the date of that acceptance, whichever is the later date, be entitled to receive the salary and to be subject to the other conditions of employment applicable from time to time to persons employed as orderlies by that Board.

(d) Subject to the prior approval of the Director-General, a commencing salary higher than the first year salary may be paid to a person appointed as a pupil male nurse having regard to his previous experience in work similar in nature and responsibility to that required in the position of pupil male nurse.

7. Part Time Male Nurse A rate of salary representing that proportion of the salary payable in respect of full time employment in the position occupied that the number of hours worked during the week bears to forty, that rate to be increased by 10 per cent if the hours worked per week are thirty or less.

8. Male Nurse or Pupil Male Nurse employed in a tuberculosis institution, ward, or annex :
The remuneration for corresponding positions provided for in clauses 1 to 7 (inclusive) of this Schedule and . . . £29 18s. additional.

Male Nurses on Call and on Divided Duty

5. (1) Where a male nurse is required for a period of seven or more consecutive days to be on call for duty outside his ordinary hours of work, there shall be paid to him an allowance at the rate of 11s. 6d. a week for that period.

(2) In respect of any period of duty outside his ordinary hours of work for which a male nurse has been called, he shall be entitled to time off equivalent to the period of duty and the time (if any) reasonably occupied in travelling from his home and returning to his home to carry out the duty, or, at the discretion of the Board, instead of that time off he shall be paid in respect of the said period of duty and travelling time a special call allowance as follows:—

(a) In respect of call duty and travelling time between the hours of 6 a.m. and 11 p.m., payment shall be made at a rate equal to one and a half times the hourly rate of pay, but not in any case at less than 6s. 11d. an hour :

(b) In respect of call duty and travelling time after 11 p.m. and before 6 a.m., payment shall be made at a rate equal to twice the hourly rate of pay, but not in any case less than 6s. 11d. an hour :

(c) The total amount payable in respect of any period of call duty and travelling time shall not be less than the amount payable for one hour's call duty in accordance with paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of this subclause, as the case may be :

(d) In addition to the allowances provided in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subclause, actual and reasonable expenses incurred in transport to and from call duty shall be paid.

(3) For the purposes of this regulation the hourly rate of pay shall be a two thousand and eightieth part of the yearly rate of salary payable in accordance with the foregoing provisions of these regulations before making any deduction under regulation 6 hereof, and in the final calculation of the rate of payment for call duty a fraction of less than a halfpenny is to be reckoned at the halfpenny above and a fraction of more than a halfpenny at the penny above.

(4) Where a male nurse or pupil male nurse who normally lives out is required to perform divided duty, there shall be paid to him an allowance at the rate of 5s. 9d. for each week of divided duty performed.

Deduction for Board and Lodging

6. (1) In respect of any period during which a Board provides a male nurse with board and lodging, it shall make a deduction from the salary of the employee concerned at an annual rate of £69.

(2) Free meals shall be provided whilst on duty to a male nurse or pupil male nurse living out.

Uniforms

7. (1) A suitable uniform shall be supplied for the use of every whole time male nurse or whole time pupil male nurse, but shall remain the property of the Board.

(2) Two pairs of duty shoes and six pairs of white socks shall each year be supplied free of charge to every whole time male nurse or whole time pupil male nurse, or in lieu thereof he shall be paid an allowance of such amount as may be decided by the Board.

(3) Where a Board requires a male nurse employed part time to wear a particular uniform, this shall be supplied free of charge, but shall remain the property of the Board.

(4) Where a Board requires a male nurse employed part time or as a relieving nurse to wear white shoes and socks, he may be granted an allowance in respect of the cost thereof of such amount as may be decided by the Board.

(5) All uniforms, but not other clothing, shall be laundered free of charge.

Hours of Work

8. (1) The hours of work for male nurses, other than tutor male nurses and district male nurses, and for pupil male nurses, shall be as follows:—

(a) For male nurses and pupil male nurses on night duty, one duty not exceeding eight hours commencing not earlier than 10 p.m. and not later than 11 p.m.:

(b) For male nurses and pupil male nurses on day duty, one duty not exceeding eight hours or two duties not together exceeding eight hours, and in either case inclusive of a break of ten minutes for morning tea, afternoon tea, or supper during duty hours, such day duty or duties to be between the hours of 6 a.m. and 11 p.m. and not to involve more than five hours' work between meals.

(2) A male nurse or pupil male nurse on day duty shall be allowed a break of half an hour for each meal during duty hours, but any such break shall not count as hours of work for the purposes of the next succeeding regulation.

(3) A male nurse or pupil male nurse changing from day to night duty, or vice versa, shall have at least twenty-four hours off duty before commencing the new duty.

(4) Every male nurse or pupil male nurse shall have one clear period of at least twenty-four hours off duty each week.

(5) Time occupied by pupil male nurses in attendance at classes of instruction for the purposes of their training and at State examinations shall be deemed to be hours of work for the purposes of this regulation.

(6) The normal weekly hours of work shall be forty, to be worked as far as practicable on five successive days.

(7) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this regulation, a Board may in case of emergency require a male nurse or pupil male nurse to work at times and for periods other than those hereinbefore prescribed.

Overtime

9. (1) Where a male nurse or pupil male nurse is required to work more than an aggregate of forty hours in any week (exclusive in the case of a male nurse of any time for which a call duty allowance is payable in accordance with regulation 5 hereof), the excess time shall be deemed to be overtime, and shall be subject to payment at one and a half times the hourly rate of pay for the first four hours and thereafter at double the hourly rate of pay :

Provided that a Board may, at its discretion, instead of paying overtime in accordance with this subclause, grant a male nurse or a pupil male nurse leave equivalent to the excess hours.

(2) For the purposes of this regulation the hourly rate of pay shall be computed in the same manner as is prescribed in subclause (3) of regulation 5 hereof in respect of a special call allowance.

Annual Leave

10. (1) Leave of absence on full pay for recreational purposes shall be granted to male nurses and pupil male nurses according to the following scale, namely :—

Class of Employee.	Number of Days' Leave in Respect of Each Year of Employment.
1. Male nurses	28
2. Pupil male nurses	23

(2) The number of days shown in the last preceding subclause is to be reckoned in consecutive days (including Saturdays and Sundays).

(3) A Board may permit annual leave to be taken in two periods.

(4) When the employment of a male nurse or a pupil male nurse ceases, he shall be paid salary instead of being granted leave in respect of any annual leave or portion of annual leave accrued due to him.

Sick Leave

11. (1) Where a male nurse or pupil male nurse is granted leave of absence on account of sickness or injury not arising out of and in the course of his employment (hereinafter referred to as sick leave), he shall be entitled to full pay or half pay, as the case may be, according to the scale prescribed in the Schedule set out in subclause (7) this of regulation.

(2) The length of service for the purposes of the Schedule means the aggregate period of service, whether continuous or intermittent, in the employ of a Board, a separate institution, or the Crown, or of two or more of such employers.

(3) The total period of sick leave with pay set out in the Schedule may consist of one or more periods. Sick leave with pay for each period allowed is to be reckoned in consecutive days (including Saturdays and Sundays).

(4) For every male nurse or pupil male nurse whose length of service exceeds four years the period of sick leave with pay to which he is entitled shall, for the purposes of the Schedule, be computed in respect of his whole length of service. For the purposes of that Schedule, every two days previously allowed on half pay shall be computed as one day previously allowed.

(5) In addition to sick leave with pay as provided for in the foregoing provisions of this regulation, a male nurse or a pupil male nurse may, at the discretion of a Board, be granted sick leave with full pay for not more than eight days in any year where on account of minor illness it is deemed inadvisable for him, in his own interests or those of the institution, to be on duty.

(6) Where in the opinion of a Board a male nurse or pupil male nurse in its employ is incapacitated by sickness or injury arising out of and in the course of his employment, it shall be permissible for the Board to continue to pay his full salary during incapacity :

Provided that the prior written approval of the Director-General shall be obtained for any such payment beyond a period of three months :

Provided further that the period in respect of which salary is paid in accordance with the provisions of this subclause shall not be regarded as sick leave with pay for the purposes of the foregoing provisions of this regulation.

(7) The Schedule referred to in subclause (1) of this regulation is as follows :—

SCHEDULE

Length of Service.	Total Period of Sick Leave With Pay During Whole Length of Service.
Up to four years' service ..	4 weeks on full pay and 4 weeks on half pay in any one year.
Over four years' and up to five years' service	46 days on full pay, inclusive of days previously allowed.
Over five years' and up to ten years' service	92 days on full pay, inclusive of days previously allowed.
Over ten years' and up to twenty years' service	183 days on full pay, inclusive of days previously allowed.
Over twenty years' and up to thirty years' service	275 days on full pay, inclusive of days previously allowed.
Over thirty years' service ..	365 days on full pay, inclusive of days previously allowed.

T. J. SHERRARD,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
