Schedule*Description of Pegasus Health Quality Programme*1 Objective

The objective of the activity is to improve the practices and competence of health practitioners engaged in the activity by assessing the health services performed by those health practitioners.

2 Method

- (1) The activity is based on information derived from health practitioners who provide health services on behalf of Pegasus Health.
- (2) The activity involves—
  - (a) the examination of patients' records; and
  - (b) the review of—
    - (i) patient management; and
    - (ii) medical management; and
    - (iii) treatment decisions; and
    - (iv) outcomes of treatment; and
    - (v) internal auditing of procedures; and
    - (vi) patient satisfaction questionnaires; and
  - (c) the monitoring, review, and analysis, through peer review, of—
    - (i) prescribing practices; and
    - (ii) laboratory test practices; and
  - (d) the identification and analysis of any process or practice that results in an outcome for patients which may, but need not, be an adverse outcome; and
  - (e) the making of recommendations on how the health practitioners who are engaging in the activity can improve their performance so as to—
    - (i) improve the quality of care they provide; and
    - (ii) reduce the incidence of adverse outcomes; and
  - (f) the facilitation and monitoring of the implementation of any such recommendations.

Dated at Wellington this 25th day of March 2006.

Pete Hodgson,
Minister of Health.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the notice, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This notice, which comes into force on the day after the date of its notification in the Gazette, declares the quality assurance activity called the Pegasus Health Quality Programme to be a protected quality assurance activity. The effect of this declaration is that, subject to certain exceptions,—

- any information that becomes known solely as a result of the activity is confidential; and
- any documents brought into existence solely for the purposes of the activity are confidential; and
- the persons who engage in the activity in good faith are immune from civil liability.

Under section 54(4) of the Health Practitioners Competence Assurance Act 2003, this notice remains in force for a period of 5 years after the date on which it is issued unless it is sooner revoked.

An earlier notice (SR 2000/19) declared the Pegasus Medical Group Quality Assurance Activity to be a quality assurance activity under the provisions of the Medical Practitioners Act 1995, which have now been repealed by the Health Practitioners Competence Assurance Act 2003. That notice has expired.
