

1972/146

THE INDUSTRIAL DESIGN REGULATIONS 1969,
AMENDMENT NO. 2

ARTHUR PORRITT, Governor-General
ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington this 10th day of July 1972

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to the Industrial Design Act 1966, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes the following regulations.

REGULATIONS

1. Title—These regulations may be cited as the Industrial Design Regulations 1969, Amendment No. 2, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Industrial Design Regulations 1969* (hereinafter referred to as the principal regulations).

2. Design index—Regulation 8 of the principal regulations is hereby amended by adding, as subclause (2), the following subclause:

“(2) The design index shall be kept in such form as the Council thinks fit, and any entry in or the removal of any entry from the index may be published or otherwise brought to the attention of the public or any section of the public by such means as the Council thinks fit.”

3. Removal of entry from design index—The principal regulations are hereby amended by inserting, after regulation 10, the following regulation:

“10A. (1) If at any time after approving the industrial design of any product and entering the product in the design index in accordance with these regulations, the Council is of the opinion that the product so approved and entered in the index is no longer being offered to the public in the form that was approved and entered, the Council may, after giving notice in accordance with subclause (2) of this regulation and considering such reply as may be made within the required time, revoke the approval and remove the entry of the product from the design index.

“(2) Before revoking the approval given to any product and removing the entry of the product from the index, the Council shall notify the applicant for entry of the product in the index of the opinion of the Council that the product is no longer being offered to the public in the form that was approved and entered in the index, and shall notify the applicant of its reasons for that opinion, and shall call on the applicant to reply, if he so thinks fit, within 21 days of notice being given to him by the Council, to show cause why the approval of the Council should not be revoked, and the entry of the product removed from the design index.”

P. J. BROOKS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations amend the Industrial Design Regulations 1969, and provide for a procedure whereby entries may be removed from the design index if the New Zealand Industrial Design Council is of the opinion that the product entered in the index is no longer being offered to the public in the form in which it was approved by the Council and entered in the index. Any entry in or the removal of any entry from the index may be brought to the attention of the public by such means as the Council thinks fit.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette: 13 July 1972.

These regulations are administered in the Department of Industries and Commerce.

370710 3462