“(2) Every such person shall provide two unretouched and unmounted half-length recent photographs of himself, of a size not exceeding $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. by $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. and not less than 3 in. by 2 in. He shall also furnish, at his own expense, such evidence as to his identity and residence in New Zealand, or as to any other fact or circumstances connected with him, as the Collector considers necessary to enable him to determine whether or not a certificate of registration should be issued.

“(3) One of the photographs aforesaid shall be securely attached to the certificate, and the other shall be retained by the Collector.

“(4) If the Collector is satisfied that the applicant is, under these regulations, entitled to a certificate of registration, he shall issue the same in form 13; but if he thinks it necessary or advisable he may refuse to deliver the said certificate to the applicant until the latter is on board the ship by which he is to leave New Zealand.

“(5) Such certificate shall entitle the applicant after leaving New Zealand again to enter New Zealand at any time within the period stated in the certificate without the requirement of a permit under the Immigration Restriction Amendment Act, 1920.

“(6) The period to be stated in the certificate as aforesaid shall be such as the Minister may in any case direct, and unless otherwise directed shall be four years from the date of the certificate.

“(7) Notwithstanding anything contained in this regulation, the Minister may in his discretion, and subject to such conditions as he may impose, direct that a certificate of registration be issued in respect of any person under fifteen years of age upon an application and declaration made by such person, or made on such person's behalf by his father or some other person approved by the Minister for the purpose, and in any such certificate there may be inserted such conditions relating to the continuance of the validity thereof or otherwise as the Minister thinks fit to direct.

“(8) On the return to New Zealand of a person holding a certificate of registration issued in accordance with these regulations, the Collector at the first port of arrival of the ship by which he so returns, if satisfied as to the identity of the holder with the person to whom the certificate was issued and that he has returned within the period specified in the certificate for his return, shall permit such person to land in New Zealand, subject, however, in the case of a certificate issued under clause (7) of this regulation to compliance on the part of the person named therein with any conditions therein contained.

“(9) Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, the Minister may direct that any certificate of registration shall be or shall be deemed to be revoked if in the application for such certificate any statement is made or any information is furnished which is incorrect in a material respect.”
