Cl. 7

REPORT OF THE HIGHER SALARIES COMMISSION ON THE DETERMINATION OF ANNUAL ALLOWANCES FOR CERTAIN MAYORS AND CHAIRMEN OF LOCAL AUTHORITIES AS AT 1 DECEMBER 1986

1. Having completed a General Review of salaries and allowances carried out under section 19 (3) of the Higher Salaries Commission Act 1977, the Higher Salaries Commission has determined revised actual annual allowances payable to specific mayors and chairmen pursuant to section 214A of the Local Government Act (as inserted by the Local Government Amendment Act 1985 (No. 60)) with effect from 1 December 1986.
2. Before finalising its list of mayors and chairmen of the local authorities to be covered in terms of section 214A (1) (a) of the Local Government Act, the Commission obtained a Certificate of Population from the Department of Statistics to verify which local authorities had a usual resident (de jure) population exceeding 50 000 at the 1986 Census of Population.
3. Under section 3 of the Higher Salaries Commission Amendment Act 1987 the Commission is restricted in the adjustments it can make to the annual allowances payable and may not increase the current annual allowances by more than 10% before the 1st day of April 1988. This restriction effectively forestalled any prospect that there might otherwise have been of the Commission making differing adjustments to the existing allowances. After consulting with appropriate bodies the Commission therefore abandoned issuing formal invitations for submissions from individuals and organisations recognised under section 214A (2).
4. As indicated on the previous occasion the Commission has not attempted to determine any "tax free" element of the allowances; it believes this is a matter for each mayor and chairman to take up with the Commissioner of Inland Revenue.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the determination, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This determination fixes the maximum allowances and remuneration that may be paid to Chairmen, Deputy Chairmen, chairmen of standing or special committees, and members of Harbour Boards. The determination does not apply to the Chairman of the Auckland Harbour Board whose annual allowance was determined by the Higher Salaries Commission in the determination set out in the Second Schedule to this determination.

Chairmen will continue to be paid only by way of an annual allowance for that position. In addition to increases in amounts, a number of changes are made in the system of payments for members other than Chairmen—

- (a) Members may be paid a combination of an annual allowance and a daily rate of remuneration:
- (b) An additional annual allowance may be paid to a member who is a Deputy Chairman or who is chairman of a standing or special committee, and if a member holds both such positions an additional annual allowance may be paid for both positions:
- (c) The former limit of 104 meetings in a calendar year for which a member could receive remuneration is not continued.

The determination takes effect on and from 1 December 1986, the date on which the determination of the Higher Salaries Commission takes effect. The determination fixes maxima only and the actual allowances and remuneration payable are to be set by each board subject to the maxima.
