

THE LAW PRACTITIONERS ADMISSION RULES 1957,
AMENDMENT NO. 2

ARTHUR PORRITT, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington this 2nd day of November 1970

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to the Law Practitioners Act 1955, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, and with the concurrence of the Right Honourable the Chief Justice and at least two of the other members of the Rules Committee constituted under the Judicature Amendment Act 1930, as amended by section 2 of the Judicature Amendment Act (No. 2) 1968, (of whom at least one was a Judge of the Supreme Court), hereby makes the following rules.

RULES

1. Title—These rules may be cited as the Law Practitioners Admission Rules 1957, Amendment No. 2, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Law Practitioners Admission Rules 1957* (hereinafter referred to as the principal rules).

2. Time for filing application for admission—Rule 4 of the principal rules is hereby amended by omitting from subclause (2), and also from subclause (3), the words “two months” wherever they occur, and substituting in each case the words “1 month”.

P. J. BROOKS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

*S.R. 1957/11
Amendment No. 1: S.R. 1966/74

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the rules, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

Every candidate for admission as a barrister or as a solicitor must give to the Registrar of the Supreme Court at the place where the application for admission is made or intended to be made written notice of his intention to apply for admission. Except in special circumstances, a period of 2 months must then elapse before the application for admission can be made. These rules reduce that period of 2 months to 1 month.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette: 5 November 1970.

These rules are administered in the Department of Justice.
