

THE LOTTO RULES 1987, AMENDMENT NO. 3

PURSUANT to section 90 of the Gaming and Lotteries Act 1977 (as substituted by section 3 (1) of the Gaming and Lotteries Amendment Act 1987), the Minister of Internal Affairs hereby approves the Lotto Rules 1987, Amendment No. 3, which were made by the New Zealand Lotteries Commission on the 18th day of August 1992, and of which a copy is set out in the Schedule hereto.

SCHEDULE

THE LOTTO RULES 1987, AMENDMENT NO. 3

PURSUANT to section 90 of the Gaming and Lotteries Act 1977 (as substituted by section 3 (1) of the Gaming and Lotteries Amendment Act 1987), the New Zealand Lotteries Commission hereby makes the following rules.

RULES

1. Title and commencement—(1) These rules may be cited as the Lotto Rules 1987, Amendment No. 3, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Lotto Rules 1987* (hereinafter referred to as the principal rules).

(2) These rules shall come into force on the 1st day of September 1992.

2. Making selection for a game—(1)—The principal rules are hereby amended by revoking rule 5 (as amended by rule 3 of the Lotto Rules 1987, Amendment No. 1 and by rule 3 of the Lotto Rules 1987, Amendment No. 2), and substituting the following rule:

“5. (1) Players must make a minimum of 4 player selections or 1 systems selection on each coupon.

“(2) Each player selection shall be made by the player marking, by hand, 6 numbered boxes in a board on a coupon with a vertical line that shall not extend beyond the outline of the box. Machine completed coupons shall not be processed by the retailer.

“(3) Each systems selection shall be made by a player marking on the coupon for systems selection either 5, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, or 15 numbered boxes in the board on the coupon with a vertical line that shall not extend beyond the outline of the box. A player making a systems selection shall also mark with a vertical line the appropriate systems selection box adjacent to the board on the coupon corresponding with the systems selection chosen.

“(4) The completed coupon shall then be submitted to the retailer for processing through the terminal that will issue the ticket recording the selections marked on the coupon.

“(5) At the request of a player wanting lucky dip selections, the retailer (without requiring a coupon) shall, through the terminal, issue a ticket that has recorded on it the number of lucky dip selections or systems lucky dip selections requested by the player from the number of lucky dip selections for which a ticket may be issued for that game.

“(6) The minimum number of lucky dip selections for which a ticket shall be issued is 10. Subject to that minimum, the Commission may from time to time specify the number of lucky dip selections for which a ticket may be issued in any game.”

(2) The following rules are hereby consequentially revoked:

- (a) Rule 3 of the Lotto Rules 1987, Amendment No. 1:
- (b) Rule 3 of the Lotto Rules 1987, Amendment No. 2.

3. Payment of prizes—The principal rules are hereby amended by revoking rule 22, and substituting the following rule:

“22. Prizes in all prize divisions shall be available for payment in accordance with these rules from and including the day following the drawing at any time when the terminal and the Commission’s on-line gaming computer system are operating.”

Dated at Wellington this 18th day of August 1992.

The Common Seal of the New Zealand Lotteries Commission was, pursuant to a resolution of the Commission, affixed to these rules in the presence of:

[L.s.] G. W. F. THOMPSON,
Presiding Member

M. A. FITZGERALD,
Member

Dated at Wellington this 20th day of August 1992.

GRAEME LEE,
Minister of Internal Affairs.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the rules, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These rules, which come into force on 1 September 1992, amend the Lotto Rules 1987—

- (a) By allowing the Commission to specify the number of lucky dip selections for which a ticket may be issued; and
- (b) By relating the availability of prize payment to the operation of the Commission's on-line gaming computer system.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.

Date of notification in Gazette: 27 August 1992.

These rules are administered in the New Zealand Lotteries Commission.
