

THE LOTTO RULES 1987, AMENDMENT NO. 5

PURSUANT to section 90 of the Gaming and Lotteries Act 1977 (as substituted by section 3 (1) of the Gaming and Lotteries Amendment Act 1987), the Minister of Internal Affairs hereby approves the Lotto Rules 1987, Amendment No. 5, which were made by the New Zealand Lotteries Commission on the 29th day of October 1993, and of which a copy is set out in the Schedule hereto.

SCHEDULE

THE LOTTO RULES 1987, AMENDMENT NO. 5

PURSUANT to section 90 of the Gaming and Lotteries Act 1977 (as substituted by section 3 (1) of the Gaming and Lotteries Amendment Act 1987), the New Zealand Lotteries Commission hereby makes the following rules.

RULES

1. Title and commencement—(1) These rules may be cited as the Lotto Rules 1987, Amendment No. 5, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Lotto Rules 1987* (hereinafter referred to as the principal rules).

(2) These rules shall come into force on the 15th day of November 1993.

2. Interpretation—Rule 2 of the principal rules (as substituted by rule 2 (1) of the Lotto Rules 1987, Amendment No. 4) is hereby amended by revoking paragraph (b) of the definition of the term “board”, and substituting the following paragraph:

*S.R. 1987/192
Amendment No. 1: S.R. 1988/156
Amendment No. 2: S.R. 1991/87
Amendment No. 3: S.R. 1992/240
Amendment No. 4: S.R. 1993/24

SCHEDULE—continued

“(b) In relation to lotto strike, the 4 grids of numbers that—

“(i) Are denoted by a letter of the alphabet on a coupon for lotto strike; and

“(ii) Are, in the case of each grid, a grid that enables a player to select, either directly or by adding 2 numbers on that grid, a number between 1 and 40 (inclusive):”.

3. Making lotto strike selection—Rule 5A of the principal rules (as substituted by rule 3 (1) of the Lotto Rules 1987, Amendment No. 4) is hereby amended by revoking subclause (3), and substituting the following subclauses:

“(3) Where each of the grids on a board on a coupon for lotto strike shows each number between 1 and 40 (inclusive), the lotto strike selection shall then be made by the player marking, by hand, in accordance with subclause (3B) of this rule, on each of the grids comprising the board, 1 of the numbers shown.

“(3A) Where each of the grids on a board on a coupon for lotto strike shows only the numbers 1 to 9 (inclusive) and the numbers 10, 20, 30, and 40, the lotto strike selection shall then be made by the player marking, by hand, in accordance with subclause (3B) of this rule, on each of the grids comprising the board, either—

“(a) One of the numbers shown; or

“(b) Where the player wishes to select a number (other than a number shown), the 2 numbers (one being a number between 1 and 9 (inclusive) and the other being the number 10 or the number 20 or the number 30) the sum of which represents the number selected (so that, for example, where the number to be selected is 23, the numbers to be marked would be 3 and 20).

“(3B) Each mark to be made by a player on a number on a grid shall be made by hand with a vertical line that shall not extend beyond the outline of the box of the number marked. Machine completed coupons will not be processed by the retailer.”

Dated at Wellington this 29th day of October 1993.

The Common Seal of the New Zealand Lotteries Commission was, pursuant to a resolution of the Commission, affixed to these rules in the presence of:

Dated at Wellington this 2nd day of November 1993.

GRAEME LEE,
Minister of Internal Affairs.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the rules, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These rules, which come into force on 15 November 1993, amend the Lotto Rules 1987. The amendments increase the number of boards that a player of the New Zealand Lotteries Commission game "Lotto Strike" may complete in making selections for a game of lotto strike.
