THE MOTOR-SPIRITS PRICES EMERGENCY REGULATIONS
1943

---

C. L. N. NEWALL, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington, this 14th day of July, 1943

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to the Emergency Regulations Act, 1939, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby make the following regulations.

---

REGULATIONS

1. These regulations may be cited as the Motor-spirits Prices Emergency Regulations 1943.

2. For the purposes of the general interpretation hereof these regulations shall be deemed to be made under the Motor-spirits (Regulation of Prices) Act, 1933 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), and, unless the context otherwise requires, expressions used in these regulations shall have the same meaning as in the Motor-spirits Prices Regulations 1942.*

3. When any person has in the year 1940 or in any subsequent year (whether before or after the commencement of these regulations) been a bulk consumer within the meaning of the Motor-spirits Prices General Regulations 1940†, the Motor-spirits Prices Regulations 1942, or any other regulations for the time being in force under the said Act in respect of motor-spirits bought for use in any business or businesses carried on by him in any sales area, he shall, for the purposes of those regulations, be deemed to continue, and to have continued, to be a bulk consumer in relation to that sales area after the expiration of that year so long as he carries on the same business or businesses and these regulations continue in force, notwithstanding that in any subsequent year he has bought less than 3,500 gallons.

† Statutory Regulations 1940, Serial number 1940/263, page 917.

4. (1) If any person has bought motor-spirits for use in his own business or businesses and not for resale and satisfies the Minister of Industries and Commerce that, if these regulations had come into force on the 1st day of January, 1941, in respect of the regulations then in force under the said Act and had applied with respect to motor-spirits purchased on or after that date, that person would have been entitled to purchase the motor-spirits at the prices for the time being in force for the purchase of motor-spirits by bulk consumers, the vendor of the motor-spirits shall refund to that person any amounts paid for the motor-spirits in excess of those prices.

(2) Any vendor of motor-spirits liable to make a refund under this regulation shall make the refund not later than sixteen days after he receives notice that the Minister has been so satisfied as aforesaid.

(3) Any such notice may be signed on behalf of the Minister by any officer of the Industries and Commerce, Tourist and Publicity Department.

C. A. JEFFERY,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
