THE MOTOR-VEHICLES INSURANCE (THIRD-PARTY RISKS)
REGULATIONS 1963

BERNARD FERGUSSON, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington this 22nd day of May 1963

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to the Transport Act 1962, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes the following regulations.

REGULATIONS

1. Title and commencement—(1) These regulations may be cited as the Motor-Vehicles Insurance (Third-Party Risks) Regulations 1963.

(2) These regulations shall come into force on the 1st day of July 1963.

2. Interpretation—In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“The Act” means the Transport Act 1962:

“Contract motor vehicle” means a motor vehicle which is either—

(a) Used in the course of business for the carriage for hire of school children going to or returning from school either with or without teachers or other escorts; or

(b) Used in the course of business for the carriage for hire of particular individuals (including clubs or parties of individuals),— and which is in neither of the cases aforesaid ever used or available either for the carriage for hire of the general public, or for the carriage for hire solely of persons in respect of whom the liability of an insurance company under subsection (1) of section 82 of the Act is excluded pursuant to subsection (4) of that section:

“Goods-service vehicle”, “motorcar”, “motor cycle”, “motor vehicle”, “owner”, “power cycle”, “passenger-service vehicle”, “station wagon”, “taxicab”, “tractor”, and “trailer” have the same meanings as in section 2 of the Act:

“Mobile crane” means a motor vehicle designed or permanently adapted for use principally as a mobile crane:

“Omnibus”, “passenger truck”, and “service coach” have the same meanings as in the Passenger Service Vehicle Construction Regulations 1954:*

“Private taxicab” means a taxicab other than a public taxicab:

“Public motor vehicle” means a motor vehicle plying for hire for the carriage of persons or used in the course of the business of carrying passengers for hire; but does not include a motor cycle, or a contract motor vehicle, or a motor vehicle used for the carriage for hire solely of persons in respect of whom the liability of an insurance company under subsection (1) of section 82 of the Act is excluded pursuant to subsection (4) of that section:

“Public taxicab” means a taxicab which is let on hire from a public place such as a road, street, or wharf, or from any stand thereon:

“Rental car” means a motorcar let on hire (otherwise than under a hire-purchase agreement or under a bailment that is for a period exceeding six months) to any person who himself drives the motorcar or provides a driver therefor.

3. Notice by companies—(1) Except as provided in subclause (2) of this regulation, every insurance company willing to undertake insurance business in terms of Part VI of the Act shall give to the Registrar of Motor Vehicles at Wellington, in the manner prescribed in section 80 of the Act, a notice in the form provided by the Registrar for the purpose.

(2) Every notice heretofore given by an insurance company under the regulations hereby revoked, and subsisting at the commencement of these regulations, shall continue in force until revoked in the manner prescribed by section 80 of the Act.

4. Nomination of companies—The nomination, pursuant to section 81 of the Act, of the insurance company with which the contract of insurance in respect of any motor vehicle is to be made shall be in the form provided by the Registrar of Motor Vehicles for the purpose.

5. Premiums—(1) The annual premiums payable in respect of contracts of insurance under Part VI of the Act shall, for the licence year commencing on the 1st day of July 1963 and any subsequent licence year, be as set out in column 3 of the First Schedule hereto, and the classes of motor vehicles for the purpose of insurance premiums shall be those set out and described in columns 1 and 2 of that Schedule.

(2) When a contract of insurance in respect of any motor vehicle is entered into for a period of less than one year, the amount of the premium as prescribed in the First Schedule hereto shall be reduced by one-twelfth part thereof for every complete month by which the term of the contract is less than one year.

6. Vehicles in more than one class—If any motor vehicle (other than a motor cycle or a motor vehicle used exclusively as an ambulance) belongs to more than one of the classes specified in the First Schedule hereto, the vehicle shall be classified as belonging to that class of the several classes to which it belongs for which the highest premium is prescribed under these regulations.

Amendment No. 1: S.R. 1956/113

Amendment No. 2: S.R. 1960/139

7. Seating measurement—Where the premium payable in respect of any motor vehicle is fixed by reference to its seating accommodation, the following rules shall apply:

- (a) If the vehicle has been licensed as a passenger-service vehicle, its seating accommodation shall be deemed to be the seating-capacity of the vehicle, inclusive of the driver's seat, determined in accordance with the Passenger Service Vehicle Construction Regulations 1954:*
- (b) If the vehicle has not been licensed as a passenger-service vehicle, its seating accommodation shall be determined by including as a separate seat—
 - (i) Every clearly defined seat the vehicle is designed or equipped to carry:
 - (ii) Every complete 16 in. of length of an undivided seat.

8. Refunds of premiums—Where, pursuant to section 19 of the Act, the registration of any motor vehicle is cancelled on the ground that the vehicle has been destroyed, or has become permanently useless as a motor vehicle, or has been permanently removed from New Zealand, and at the time of the cancellation there is in force in respect of the motor vehicle a contract of insurance under Part VI of the Act, the insurance company with which the contract of insurance has been effected shall, on application in writing made by the owner of the motor vehicle, and on being satisfied that the registration of the motor vehicle has been cancelled as aforesaid, refund to the owner a sum equal to one-twelfth part of the amount of the premium prescribed in respect of that class of vehicle by column 3 of the First Schedule hereto for every complete month between the date on which notification is received by the Deputy Registrar of the happening of the event which led to the cancellation of the registration and the end of the term of the contract of insurance.

9. Administration expenses—From every premium paid in respect of any contract of insurance under Part VI of the Act the sum of 2s. 6d. shall be deducted for administration expenses in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2) of section 88 of the Act.

10. Offences and penalties—(1) Every person commits an offence against these regulations who—

- (a) Knowingly supplies any false or misleading information required for the purposes of these regulations or in any nomination or notice made or given for the purposes of these regulations; or
 - (b) Wilfully omits or refuses to supply any information required for the purposes of these regulations.
- (2) Every person who commits an offence against these regulations is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £50.

11. Revocations—The regulations specified in the Second Schedule hereto are hereby revoked.
