NOTE—(a) The abbreviations of grades in this Schedule are the following: XF, Extra Fancy Grade; F, Fancy Grade; Com., Commercial Grade; Dom., Domestic Grade.

(b) The figures in the column headed 'Minimum Colour' indicate the respective minimum percentage of the surface of each separate fruit which is required to display the full characteristic red colour of the variety.

(c) The abbreviations of colour in this Schedule are the following: CS, colour showing; NC, no colour.

(d) 'Colour showing' means quite noticeable streaks of colour.

(e) An apple having solid red or striped colour of less bright shade than the full characteristic red colour of the variety may be admitted to any respective grade so long as it has a sufficient area of such colouring to give it as good an appearance as one which displays the full characteristic red colour of the variety over the minimum percentage of surface prescribed by this Schedule for that grade.

(f) Dull brownish stripes or patches shall not be considered as characteristic colour. For yellow and green varieties a natural blush is allowable.

(g) Allowances for blemish, russet, black spot, and other defects are provided for in regulation 48.

(h) (C) denotes culinary apples."

P. J. BROOKS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations require improvements in the appearance of certain grades of apples, particularly apples for export.

Regulation 2 specifies the maximum amount of natural and cracked russet allowable on Extra Fancy, Fancy, and Good grades of apples.

Regulation 3 establishes a new schedule of colour standards for apples based on the schedule in the principal regulations as amended a number of times; the additional changes now included generally increase the area of colour needed on Fancy Grade apples acceptable for export.

Regulation 4 sets out consequential revocations.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette: 8 February 1968.

These regulations are administered in the Department of Agriculture.
