P. J. BROOKS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations improve the minimum colour standards for some apples, include within the scope of the regulations some fruits not at present included, and provide for some other minor amendments.

Regulation 2 brings all fruits within the scope of the regulations by including the less common kinds of fruit, namely, cape gooseberries, blueberries, tangelos, avocados, feijoas, and grapes. The name tamarillo is substituted for tree tomato.

Regulations 3 and 4 make minor alterations to the allowance for blemish in some apples and pears.

Regulation 5 corrects an incorrect reference in regulation 78A of the principal regulations.

Regulation 6 authorises the use of the No. 2 (pear-type) case for peaches.

Regulation 7 requires a better colour standard for certain varieties of apples sold on the local market.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette: 20 March 1969.

These regulations are administered in the Department of Agriculture.
