EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

This determination, which is deemed to have come into force on 1 April 1988, provides for the payment of an additional allowance to the Minister of Foreign Affairs. This allowance is to provide for expenses incurred in connection with the official duties of the Minister. A similar allowance was provided for by the Parliamentary Salaries and Allowances Determination 1987.

Provision for this allowance should have been included in the Parliamentary Salaries and Allowances Determination 1988. Such provision was omitted from that determination as the Commission was giving further consideration to the change in responsibilities resulting from the re-organisation of the external relations area. The Commission is still studying the matter and the allowance previously provided to the Minister of Foreign Affairs is meanwhile being reinstated.
