EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the notice, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This notice, which comes into force on 1 October 1997 and expires on 30 September 2002, exempts, subject to conditions, issuers of equity warrants (as defined in the notice) from—

- (a) The trust deed and deed of participation requirements and various other requirements of the Securities Act 1978 and Securities Regulations 1983, if there is a registered prospectus relating to the equity warrants; or
- (b) The prospectus requirements and various other requirements of the Act and Regulations, if there is an overseas offer document (as defined in the notice) relating to the equity warrants.

The notice also exempts issuers of equity warrants from some of the advertising requirements of the Regulations in respect of audiovisual advertisements.

The notice is drafted on the basis that, where an exemption is given from a specified provision, it is not necessary to refer to other provisions that will not apply as a consequence of that exemption. For example, the exemption from section 37 of the Securities Act 1978 (the requirement to register a prospectus) means that sections 34, 37A (1) (c) and (d), and 39 to 44 of that Act will not apply.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.
Date of notification in Gazette: 30 September 1997.
This notice is administered in the Securities Commission.
