EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the order, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This order adds various classes of goods to the list of exempted goods under the Shops and Offices Act 1955. Exempted goods may be sold in shops at any time, notwithstanding any provision in the Act or in any award requiring the shop to be closed for the sale of other goods.

This order replaces the Shops and Offices Exempted Goods Order 1959, and makes the following variations in the goods exempted by that order:

Cakes, pies, and bakers' smallgoods: Pastry has been added.

Periodicals published at intervals of not more than one month, etc.: This item has been replaced by the following item:

Magazines and Periodicals:

Magazines and periodicals published at intervals of not more than one month, but this shall not be deemed to include books published either in hard-bound or paper-backed editions:

Provided that no such magazine or periodical shall be sold or exposed for sale on any Sunday unless it was on sale to the public not later than 7 p.m. on the previous day.

Sugar, in pre-packed quantities not exceeding 2 lb: "2 lb." has been changed to "3 lb".

Three new items have been added, namely:

Babies' bottles.

Flour in pre-packed quantities not exceeding 3 lb.

Fresh stone, pip, and citrus fruit.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette: 5 April 1962.

These regulations are administered in the Department of Labour.
