EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations prescribe new fees for secondhand dealers’ licences. At present, the fee for a licence in respect of a settled place of business only is $150: the fee for a licence in respect of both a settled place of business and itinerant dealing is $200. These regulations abolish that distinction, and fix a fee of $150 for any licence.

At present, where an application for a licence is withdrawn or refused, the applicant is entitled to a refund of $100 (settled place of business only) or $150 (settled place of business and itinerant dealing). Again, these regulations fix a common refund of $100.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette: 19 March 1987.

These regulations are administered in the Department of Justice.
