THE STOCK FOODS AND AGRICULTURAL SEEDS
IMPORTATION REGULATIONS 1958

COBHAM, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington this 17th day of December 1958

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to the Stock Act 1908, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes the following regulations.

REGULATIONS

1. (1) These regulations may be cited as the Stock Foods and Agricultural Seeds Importation Regulations 1958.

(2) These regulations shall come into force on the 1st day of February 1959.

2. Save with the consent of the Minister of Agriculture and subject to such conditions as he thinks fit to impose, no person shall import any of the goods specified in the First Schedule hereto.

3. The fees payable by the importer for fumigation and inspection on arrival in New Zealand of any goods specified in the First Schedule hereto shall be the same as those prescribed in the Fourth Schedule to the Plant Quarantine Regulations 1957.*

4. (1) The regulations specified in the Second Schedule hereto are hereby consequently revoked.

(2) Without limiting the provisions of the Acts Interpretation Act 1924, it is hereby declared that the revocation of any provision by these regulations shall not affect any document made or any thing whatsoever done under the provision so revoked or under any corresponding former provision, and every such document or thing, so far as it is subsisting or in force at the time of the revocation and could have been made or done under these regulations, shall continue and have effect as if it had been made or done under the corresponding provision of these regulations and as if that provision had been in force when the document was made or the thing was done.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations prohibit the importation of certain specified stock foods and agricultural seeds except with the consent of the Minister of Agriculture and subject to such conditions as he thinks fit to impose. The regulations take the place of the regulations which they revoke, and are designed to facilitate the prevention of the introduction of diseases and pests of stock into New Zealand by the imposition of standard conditions for stock foods and for seeds.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette: 18 December 1958.

These regulations are administered in the Department of Agriculture.
