

THE SUPERANNUATION (TRANSFER OF SERVICE)
REGULATIONS 1968, AMENDMENT NO. 1

ARTHUR PORRITT, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington this 19th day of June 1972

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to the Superannuation Act 1956, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes the following regulations.

REGULATIONS

1. Title—These regulations may be cited as the Superannuation (Transfer of Service) Regulations 1968, Amendment No. 1, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Superannuation (Transfer of Service) Regulations 1968* (hereinafter referred to as the principal regulations).

2. Transfer of service into Judges' scheme—Regulation 3 of the principal regulations is hereby amended by adding to the second proviso the words "unless he has held office as a Judge for a period of not less than 5 years and such period of holding office as a Judge together with the period during which he previously contributed to the Fund under Part IV of the Act is in the aggregate a period of not less than 15 years".

P. J. BROOKS,

Clerk of the Executive Council.

*S.R. 1968/81

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

This amendment will enable a contributor under Part IV of the Superannuation Act 1956 (relating to Magistrates, Maori Land Court Judges, and the Solicitor-General) who is appointed as a Judge and elects to have his past service converted to service under Part V to receive a retiring allowance under Part V after he has held office as a Judge for not less than 5 years, provided he has attained the age of 60 years and the period of holding that office together with the period during which he previously contributed under Part IV is in the aggregate not less than 15 years.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette: 22 June 1972.

These regulations are administered in the Treasury.
