

THE SHIPPING RESTRICTED LIMITS NOTICE 1980

---

PURSUANT to section 250 of the Shipping and Seamen Act 1952 (as amended by section 16 of the Shipping and Seamen Amendment Act 1969 and section 10 of the Shipping and Seamen Amendment Act 1972), the Minister of Transport hereby gives the following notice.

---

NOTICE

1. Title and commencement—(1) This notice may be cited as the Shipping Restricted Limits Notice 1980.

(2) This notice shall come into force on the 1st day of April 1980.

2. Interpretation—In this notice, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“The Act” means the Shipping and Seamen Act 1952:

“Length”, in relation to any ship, means the register length:

Other expressions defined in the Act have the meanings so defined.

3. Port limits—The limits for the ports specified in the first column of the First Schedule to this notice (being the limits within which ships in respect of which restricted-limit certificates are issued may ply or proceed) shall be those specified respectively opposite the names of those ports in the second, third, and fourth columns of that Schedule.

4. Extreme limits to apply only in respect of certain classes of ships—The extreme limits defined in respect of various ports in the fourth column of the First Schedule to this notice apply only in respect of ships of not less than 9 metres in length.

5. Transitional provision—Notwithstanding clause 3 of this notice, in any case where the extended river limits prescribed by this notice in respect of any port are of lesser extent than the extended river limits prescribed by the Shipping Restricted Limits Notice 1964* in respect of that port, any ship that was, immediately before the commencement of this notice, authorised to ply or proceed within the greater limits prescribed by that notice, may, subject to the provisions of the Act, continue to so ply or proceed within those greater limits for a period of 5 years commencing with the date on which this notice comes into force.

6. Revocations—The notices specified in the Second Schedule to this notice are hereby consequentially revoked.

Clauses 3, 4
