

THE TICKETING (PUBLIC BAR) NOTICE 1982

PURSUANT to section 108 of the Commerce Act 1975, the Minister of Trade and Industry hereby gives the following notice.

NOTICE

1. Title and commencement—(1) This notice may be cited as the Ticketing (Public Bar) Notice 1982.

(2) This notice shall come into force on the 9th day of August 1982.

2. Application—This notice shall apply to all beer, spirits, aerated waters, cordials, and fruit juice, which are not for the time being subject to a price order or special approval under Part IV of the Commerce Act 1975.

3. Ticketing in public bars—Every retailer who offers or exposes for sale in the public bar of any hotel, tavern, or other premises licensed under the Sale of Liquor Act 1962 or deemed to be licensed under that Act any goods to which this notice applies shall keep in a prominent position in that public bar in such proximity to the goods to which it relates as to be obviously in relation thereto a ticket, placard, or label on which is stated in legible and prominent characters—

- (a) In the case of spirits, the retail price per nip, together with a statement of the number of millilitres per nip:
- (b) In the case of draught beer,—
 - (i) The retail price per glass, together with a statement of the capacity of the glass; and
 - (ii) The retail price per jug (where draught beer is offered or exposed for sale by the jug), together with a statement of the capacity of the jug:
- (c) In the case of bottled beer, the retail price per bottle, together with a statement of the name of the beer and the capacity of the bottle:
- (d) In the case of canned beer, the retail price per can, together with a statement of the name of the beer and the capacity of the can:
- (e) In the case of spirits, the amount by which the retail price stated pursuant to paragraph (a) of this clause will be increased if aerated water, cordial, or fruit juice is added to the spirits:

- (f) In the case of draught beer, the amount by which the retail price stated pursuant to paragraph (b) of this clause will be increased if aerated water is added to the draught beer:
- (g) In the case of aerated water offered or exposed for sale by the bottle, the retail price per bottle of each kind of aerated water so offered or exposed for sale.

Dated at Wellington this 21st day of July 1982.

HUGH TEMPLETON,
Minister of Trade and Industry.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the notice, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This notice, which comes into force on 9 August 1982, requires, in respect of beer, spirits, and aerated waters, offered or exposed for sale in public bars, that the retailer exhibit appropriate price lists or price tickets so that prospective customers will know, before they order or make their purchase, the prices charged. The price charged when aerated water is added to spirits or beer and when cordial or fruit juice is added to spirits must also be shown.

This notice applies only in respect of goods which are not for the time being subject to a price order or special approval under Part IV of the Commerce Act 1975.

It is an offence against the Commerce Act 1975 to act in contravention of or to fail to comply in any respect with any obligation or duty imposed by this notice.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette: 29 July 1982.

This notice is administered in the Department of Trade and Industry.
