EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations prescribe the design for the Tokelau 1983 Souvenir Dollar, which is to be made and issued as a legal tender only in Tokelau. Provisions relating to the standard composition, diameter, and weight of coinage are contained in the Decimal Currency Act 1964 and the Coinage Regulations 1967 (S.R. 1967/104), both of which are in force in Tokelau. Various production problems have caused the delay in issuing the coin. The obverse impression has the Machin design used for the effigy of Her Majesty. The reverse impression is illustrated below.
