THE TOKELAU ISLANDS CENSUS REGULATIONS 1956

C. W. M. NORRIE, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington this 5th day of September 1956

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to the Tokelau Islands Act 1948, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes the following regulations.

REGULATIONS

1. These regulations may be cited as the Tokelau Islands Census Regulations 1956.

2. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“Dwelling” means any building or erection, whether permanent or temporary, which is wholly or partly used for human habitation; and includes a vessel at any island of the Tokelau Islands or on a passage between any two of those islands:

“Night of the census” means the night between sunset on Tuesday the 25th day of September 1956 and sunrise on the following day.

3. These regulations shall apply only to the census hereby directed to be taken.

4. A census shall be taken in the Tokelau Islands on Thursday the 27th day of September 1956; and the particulars to be obtained at the census shall relate to midnight between Tuesday the 25th day of September 1956 and Wednesday the 26th day of September 1956.

5. For the purpose of taking the census the Administrator may assign duties to such officers as are required.

6. The census of persons other than Natives shall be taken by means of household schedules or personal schedules containing particulars which shall be furnished by the occupier or person in charge of every dwelling with respect to every person (not being a Native) who abode in the dwelling on the night of the census and who was alive at midnight or who, not being a Native and not being already included in any other census schedule, arrived in that dwelling after midnight on the night of the census and before midnight on the next following night.

7. The occupier or person in charge of every such dwelling shall ensure that the particulars required by the schedules are furnished with respect to—

- (a) Every person (not being a Native) who abode in the dwelling on the night of the census and who was alive at midnight on that night; and
- (b) Every person (not being a Native) who arrived at the dwelling after midnight on that night and before midnight on the next following night and who was not included in any other census schedule.

8. Every person (not being a Native and not being the occupier or person in charge of the dwelling) shall furnish to the occupier or person in charge of the dwelling the particulars necessary to complete the schedules or shall complete a personal schedule and deliver it to the occupier or person in charge.

9. The particulars, which shall be obtained by means of the said schedules, shall be as follows:

(a) Household Schedule—

- (i) Nature of establishment:
- (ii) Name of island in which situated:
- (iii) Number of persons (other than Natives) of each sex who abode in the dwelling on the night of the census and who were alive at midnight on that night, or who arrived at or returned to the dwelling after midnight on that night and before midnight on the next following night and were not included in any other census schedule:
- (iv) Name of every person for whom a personal schedule is attached.

(b) Personal Schedule—

- (i) Full name:
- (ii) Relationship to head of household:
- (iii) Sex:
- (iv) Age:
- (v) Marital status:
- (vi) Total number of children living or dead born to every female fifteen years of age or over and her age when first child was born:
- (vii) Birthplace:
- (viii) Year of birth:
- (ix) Racial origin:
- (x) Industry, profession, or occupation:
- (xi) Religion.

10. The census of Natives shall be taken and recorded in household schedules by officers appointed for that purpose.

11. The particulars which shall be obtained from Natives shall be as follows:

- (a) Name:
- (b) Relationship to head of household:
- (c) Sex:
- (d) Age:
- (e) Marital status:
- (f) Racial origin:
- (g) Birthplace:

(h) Year of birth:

(i) Name of village or district where living at the census:

(j) Occupation:

(k) Religion.

12. If any person, whether a Native or not, objects to stating his religion an entry or statement of objection shall be sufficient for the purpose of the census.

13. Every officer appointed for the purpose of the census may ask such questions and conduct such inquiries as are necessary to obtain or to verify the particulars specified in regulations 9 and 11 hereof.

14. In any case in which the prescription of particulars hereinbefore specified is insufficient to indicate the nature of the information to be furnished any officer appointed to any duty in connection with the census shall have power to direct by means of instructions contained in a census schedule the precise nature of the particulars required.

15. Any person who neglects or refuses to furnish any census schedule as aforesaid or to answer any questions lawfully put to him for the purposes of the census, or who knowingly makes any statements or gives any answer untrue in any material particular required by these regulations, commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding £50.

16. Any person who without lawful authority destroys, mutilates, or defaces a census schedule or other census document or record commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding £50.

17. Any officer appointed to any duty in connection with the census or any other person who divulges or makes use of any information obtained pursuant to these regulations, except as required for the preparation of statistics from the data obtained at the census, commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding £50.

18. Any person who hinders or obstructs any officer in pursuance of his duty under these regulations commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding £10.

19. The Administrator may prepare from the data obtained at the census such statistics as may be required for his purposes and may publish such statistics and such comments thereon as he deems necessary or advisable.

20. The Tokelau Islands Census Regulations 1951* are hereby revoked.

T. J. SHERRARD,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
