T. J. SHERRARD,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

[This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.]

The purpose of regulation 2 is to make it clear that the conditions implied in goods service licences by regulation 29A of the principal regulations (relating to their area of availability) are in addition to and not in substitution for those implied by regulation 29 (relating to the type of goods that may be carried and the routes on which they may be carried), and that only the class of goods specified in the licence may be carried in the extended area of availability.

Regulation 3 provides for additional annual fees consequent upon the extension of the duration of transport licences by the Transport Amendment Act 1950.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.
Date of notification in Gazette: 15th day of November 1951.
These regulations are administered in the Transport Department.
